A Collection of Addreſſes. N° 1.

PART II.

Kenſington, June 10. 1710.

This Day was preſented to Her Majeſty, the following Addreſs from the Clergy of the Arch-Deaconry of Coventry, by the Reverend Mr. Cotterel, Proctor of the Clergy of the Dioceſs, and the Reverend Mr. Daggett, Rector of Birmingham, introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Leeds. Which Her Majeſty was pleas'd to receive very graciouſly, and admitted them to kiſs Her Hand.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign!

WE Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Clergy aſſembled at the Arch-Deacon's Viſitation, held in the City of Coventry, and the Town of Colefhill, in the County of Warwick, and Dioceſe of Litchfield and Coventry, on the Tenth and Eleventh Days of May, 1710, encourag'd by Your Majeſty's late gracious Acceptance of the many repeated Aſſurances of Your Peoples Fidelity and Affection; do, with all Humility, crave Leave to expreſs our moſt hearty Concern and Sorrow, that, under Your Auſpicious and Indulgent Reign, there ſhould any Men be found ſo daringly Wicked and Ungrateful, as openly to Eſpouſe and Maintain the ſame Deteſtable Principles, which gave Riſe to that unnatural Rebellion, which involv'd this Nation in all the Miſeries of a Long and Inteſtine War, the Overthrow of this Primitive Eſtabliſh'd Church, and the Barbarous Murder of Your Royal Grandfather, the meekeſt of Kings, and the beſt of Men. Coventry Clergy.

We humbly hope, it will be eſteem'd a pardonable Preſumption, that, out of our juſt and dutiful Senſe of Your Majeſty's undoubted Hereditary Right to theſe Kingdoms, We take this Opportunity to declare our utter Hatred and Abhorrence of thoſe Seditious, Republican, and Traiterous Doctrines, which, of late, have been ſo Audaciouſly and Induſtriouſly ſpread Abroad, to no other End (as We can conceive) than to poiſon the Minds of Your People, and to undermine Your Majeſty's undoubted Right and Prerogative.

As it is the Diſtinguiſhing Character of the Church of England, to aſſert and defend the Rights of Princes, by not ſubjecting them to the Coercion of any humane Power, either of Pope, Presbytery, or People; ſo we beg Leave to aſſure Your Majeſty, that we will be careful, to the utmoſt of our Power, to diſcountenance and ſuppreſs all Factious, Jeſuitical, Antimonarchical Principles and Practices, and to inſtruct Your People committed to our Charge, in the Indiſpenſable Duties of Peace and Submiſſion, and the good old Doctrines of Paſſive-Obedience, and Non-Reſiſtance.

And when Your Majeſty ſhall, to the great Satisfaction of Your Loyal Subjects, (and of none more than the CLERGY) be pleas'd to call another Parliament, and give the Convocation Leave to ſit, we will continue to chooſe ſuch to repreſent us in Both, as ſhall be eminently Loyal to Your Majeſty, Religiouſly devoted to our Church, her Doctrines, Worſhip, Diſcipline, and Ordinances; ſhall ſtrictly obſerve the known Laws of the Land, and have the tendereſt Regard to the Legal Rights and Liberties of their Fellow-Subjects.

And we beg Leave farther to aſſure Your Majeſty, that, as You have excell'd Your Royal Anceſtors in Your Bounty to the Church; ſo we retain a due and grateful Senſe of that, and other great Favours we enjoy under Your Majeſty's moſt happy Adminiſtration.

Beſeeching Almighty God, by whom Princes Reign, and to whom alone they are Accountable, that He would, in great Mercy to theſe Kingdoms, grant Your Majeſty a Long, Peaceful, and Happy Reign over us; and that You may tranſmit our Church, fenc'd with the Security of wholſome Laws, and Your Crown adorn'd with all the Powers of its juſt Prerogative, to Your Succeſſors of the Illuſtrious Houſe of HANOVER; is the hearty and daily Prayer of,

Your Majeſty's conſcientiouſly Obedient and moſt Dutiful Subjects:

The following Addreſs from the Corporation of Brecon, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Edward Jeffreys, Eſq; their Repreſentative in Parliament; introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Ormond; and Mr. Jeffreys had the Honour to kiſs Her Majeſty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Bayliff, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, and Inhabitants of Your Majeſty's ancient and loyal Corporation of Brecon.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

Brecon Corporation.

YOur Majeſty's moſt gracious Acceptance of the dutiful Addreſſes of our Fellow-Subjects, gives us likewiſe hopes of Leave to Approach Your Royal and Sacred Perſon, with Aſſurances, that tho' Factious, Republican, and Deſigning Spirits, have, of late, with great Warmth, endeavour'd to maintain and perſuade, that certain Conditions go into the Compoſition of our Allegiance and Duty to Your Majeſty, yet our Loyalty is fix'd upon ſuch Principles, that admit of no Reſtrictions or Limitations in our Obedience.

When we obſerve our moſt Excellent Church on the one hand, and the Civil Government and State on the other, (of both which Your Majeſty, notwithſtanding any Popiſh or Fanatical Aſſertions, is the undoubted Supreme Head and Governor) to be treated with ſo much Prophaneneſs and Inſolence, by Atheiſts, Deiſts, Obſervators, Reviewers, and other Church and State Libellers; we cannot otherwiſe than crave Leave to declare, our utmoſt Abhorrence and Deteſtation, as well of all Blaſphemous and Heretical Doctrines, that tend to deſtroy our holy Religion; as alſo of all Reſiſting and Antimonarchical Principles, that tend to breed Sedition, Faction, and Rebellion, within Your Majeſty's Realms and Dominions.

We eſteem it a great Happineſs, that our Repreſentative in Parliament concurs with us in theſe Sentiments; and it ſhall be always our Care to make Choice of ſuch an one, as is noted for Loyalty to Your Majeſty, firm Adherence to Monarchy and the Proteſtant Succeſſion, and hearty Affection to the Church of England, as by Law Eſtabliſh'd.

May Your Majeſty's Reign over us be long and proſperous! May Your Glorious Arms ſubdue Your Enemies abroad, and Your innate Clemency and Tendency convert all that are ſuch at home; that You may not only eſtabliſh a Peace to ſecure us from foreign Invaſions, but from Factions and Diviſions among ourſelves. Such a Peace is reſerved only for Your Majeſty's Reign; whereby the Glory of it may be perpetuated to all Generations. Theſe are the ſincere and hearty Prayers of Your Majeſty's moſt faithful and moſt obedient Subjects.

In Teſtimony whereof, we have hereunto cauſed our Common Seal to be affix'd, the Two and Twentieth Day of May, in the Ninth Year of Your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Reign.

Kenſington, June 14. 1710.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Hertford, was Preſented by Charles Ceſar, Eſq; accompanied by the Deputy, Mayor, Recorder, and ſeveral of the Aldermen of the ſaid Borough; being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Shrewsbury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majeſty's Houſhold. Which Addreſs Her Majeſty receiv'd very graciouſly, and admitted Mr. Ceſar, and the reſt of the Gentlemen, to the Honour of kiſſing Her Hand.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, High-Steward, Recorder, Deputy-Recorder, Aldermen, Town-Clerk, Aſſiſtants, Freemen, and Inhabitants of Your Majeſty's ancient Borough of Hertford.

Hertford Borough.

WE (Moſt gracious Sovereign) Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, beg Leave to approach Your Royal Perſon, at this time, to aſſure Your Majeſty, That we, from our Hearts, abhor and deteſt all thoſe Seditious and Rebellious Doctrines and Poſitions that have of late been ſo induſtriouſly endeavour'd to be propagated throughout this Kingdom. We are very ſenſible, that nothing can be more fatally dangerous to Your Majeſty's moſt Sacred Perſon, and Happy Conſtitution, both in Church and State, than Principles founded upon Factious, Antimonarchical, and Rebellious Notions. We therefore aſſure Your Majeſty, We will endeavour to be repreſented in the next Parliament, when Your Majeſty ſhall pleaſe to call the ſame, by ſuch Members as will not be wanting in their Zeal, to ſupport Your Majeſty, our Apoſtolical Church, Monarchy, and the Proteſtant Succeſſion, againſt all Attempts, either of Foreign or Domeſtick Enemies.

St. James's,

St. James's, June 20.

The following Addreſs was preſented by Francis Arundell, Eſq; introduc'd by the Duke of Shrewsbury, Lord Chamberlain of the Houſhold: Which was receiv'd very graciouſly.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, the Right Honourable the Recorder, Deputy-Recorder, Aldermen, Bayliffs, and Burgeſſes, of Your Majeſty's ancient Corporation of Northampton.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

WE, Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave to expreſs our utmoſt Deteſtation and Abhorrence of that pernicious Doctrine of Reſiſtance, of late, by ſome, ſo warmly aſſerted and maintain'd againſt the general Senſe of Your Majeſty's good People. Northampton Corporation.

A Doctrine inconſiſtent with the Laws for the Preſervation of Your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, making that Rebellion only Treaſon, which wants Succeſs.

A Doctrine, by which the worſt of Subjects hath a Right to judge of the Actions of the Beſt of Princes; who, as their Intereſt and Ambition leads them, will never want a Pretence to take up Arms, and dethrone their Lawful Sovereign.

And we are much ſurpriz'd, that a Tenet of this Nature ſhould be ſo induſtriouſly advanc'd in Your Majeſty's mild and moſt auſpicious Reign. And tho' we are willing to hope, the bold Aſſertors of it have no Thoughts of finding a Pretence to put it in practice againſt Your Majeſty, yet, when we conſider, that the Piety, Virtue, and gentle Adminiſtration of Your Royal Grandfather, of Bleſſed Memory, could not defend Him from the Rage and Violence of the Men of this Republican Principle, we are excited, together with the reſt of Your Faithful Subjects, to renew our Acknowledgments of Your Majeſty's undoubted Right to the Crown of Your Anceſtors, and to aſſure Your Majeſty of our inviolable Duty and Obedience; and that we will ſacrifice our Lives and Fortunes in the Defence of Your Sacred Perſon and Government againſt all Your Enemies, Foreign and Domeſtick: And that whenever Your Majeſty ſhall graciouſly pleaſe to call a New Parliament, we will endeavour to chooſe ſuch Members only, who ſhall truly repreſent us, in an unlimited Loyalty, and ſteady Adherence to the Intereſt of Your Majeſty, the Proteſtant Succeſſion, and the Church of England, as by Law eſtabliſh'd. In Teſtimony whereof, we, being aſſembled in Common-Council, this Ninth Day of June, in the Ninth Year of Your Majeſty's Reign, have hereunto affix'd our common Seal.

Kenſington, June 25. 1710.

This Day, the following Addreſs from the Corporation and Town of New-Windſor was preſented to Her Majeſty, by William Peiſly, Eſq; their Under-Steward, the Honourable George Granville, Eſq; William Bowles and Charles Aldworth, Eſqs; with the Reverend Mr. Dawſon; introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Northumberland. Which Addreſs being read, was receiv'd very graciouſly; and the Gentlemen had the Honour to kiſs Her Majeſty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the High-Steward, Under-Steward, Bailiffs, and Loyal Majority of the Burgeſſes, the Miniſter, Gentlemen, and other Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of New-Windſor.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

WE, Your moſt dutiful and obedient Subjects, being more immediately ſenſible of the Influence of Your Majeſty's Government, as being oftner than our Fellow-Subjects, bleſs'd with the Preſence of the Beſt of Queens, ſhould be altogether unworthy of Your Royal Favour, ſhould we omit any Opportunity of ſhewing our Duty and Zeal to Your Perſon and Government. New-Windſor Borough.

We, therefore, humbly crave Leave to aſſure Your Majeſty, That, to the utmoſt, we will aſſert and maintain, againſt all Oppoſers, Your Majeſty's Hereditary Title to theſe Realms, which have ſo long flouriſh'd under Your Royal Anceſtors. We deteſt and abhor all Popiſh, Fanatical, and Republican Principles of Reſiſtance and Rebellion; and are firmly reſolv'd to live and die in the Communion of our truly Apoſtolical Church, the Church of England as by Law eſtabliſh'd, with a due Regard to Conſciences truly ſcrupulous.

We do alſo, with joyful Hearts, congratulate the Happy Succeſs of Your Majeſty's Arms, under the Conduct of Your Great General, in the Reduction of the ſtrong Town of Douay. And may the Almighty crown this, and Your other Victories, with a Happy Peace.

May Your Majeſty long Reign over us, the Glory of our Nation, and Defender of our Church. And when Your Majeſty ſhall, late, change this Temporal for an Eternal Crown, may the Dominion of theſe Realms, in default of Iſſue from Your Majeſty, continue to all Generations in the Proteſtant Succeſſion, as by Law eſtabliſh'd.

The

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Appleby, in the County of Weſtmorland, was preſented to Her Majeſty the 9th Day of June, 1710, by Edward Duncomb, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament; introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Shrewsbury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majeſty's Houſhold. Which Addreſs Her Majeſty receiv'd very graciouſly; and Mr. Duncomb had the Honour to kiſs Her Majeſty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Council, Free Burghers, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Appleby, in the County of Weſtmorland, aſſembled in the Publick Hall of the ſaid Borough.

May it pleaſe Your Sacred Majeſty!

Appleby Borough.

TO permit Us, amongſt the reſt of Your Loyal Subjects, chearfully to congratulate the Triumphs of Your Majeſty's Arms, which glorioufly Open'd the Campagne with Ent'ring the French Lines; And have lately oblig'd the Boaſting Enemy ingloriouſly to retreat, and leave One of their moſt conſiderable Towns to the Mercy of the Confederate-Forces. Theſe Advantages We thankfully attribute to that good Providence, which has hitherto conſtantly attended Your Majeſty's juſt and prudent Adminiſtration. And which, We humbly hope, will, in a little time, put an End to a long, bloody, and expenſive War; enable Your Majeſty to reſtore the Tranquillity of Europe; and give the Chriſtian World ſuch a Peace, as ſhall be, in a ſpecial manner, Honourable and Advantageous to Your Majeſty, and Your High Allies. This much deſired Bleſſing, together with thouſands more, which We already enjoy, under the Beſt Government, and the Beſt of Queens, would make Us completely happy, if all Your Majeſty's Liege People were as ſenſible of their own true Intereſt and of their Duty, as we are. But, to our Sorrow, We obſerve ſome turbulent and unquiet Spirits, endeavouring to Trouble the Waters, and Poiſon the Minds of Your Majeſty's Subjects, with Erroneous and Factious Tenets, tending to the Subverſion of our Conſtitution, and the Diminution of Your Royal Prerogative; againſt which, We beg Leave, to proteſt Our Abhorrence and Deteſtation: And ſolemnly and ſincerely to declare, That We look upon the Novel Doctrine of Reſiſtance, lately reviv'd, and induſtriouſly ſpread, and publiſh'd, amongſt Us, to be a dangerous Antimonarchical and Seditious Doctrine, inconſiſtent with the Safety of Your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Government, repugnant to the Loyal Principles of our Holy Church, and contrary to the ancient and excellent Laws of the Nation.

To prevent, as much as in Us lies, the fatal Effects, which looſe Fanatical Notions and Opinions have formerly produc'd in theſe Kingdoms, We preſume to aſſure Your Majeſty, That We will take all poſſible Care to be fairly Repreſented in Your ſucceeding Parliament, by Men of Conſcience, Honeſty, and Integrity; who will think it their Duty to aſſert Your Majeſty's undoubted Hereditary Title to the Throne, and ſtand in Defence of Your Sacred Perſon, Crown and Dignity, the Government in Church and State as by Law eſtabliſh'd, and the Proteſtant Succeſſion in the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover, againſt all Oppoſers and Pretenders whatſoever.

In Teſtimony of Our Sincerity, do beg Leave, to give it under Our Hands, and under the Common Seal of Our Corporation, that We are (Dread Sovereign!)

Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful, Loyal, and Obedient Subjects.

Note, This Paper is deſign'd to be continu'd, and ſold by John Morphew near Stationers-Hall; Price 1 d. To whom Gentlemen are deſir'd to ſend Exact Tranſcripts of ſuch Addreſſes as ſhall come to their Hands, and they ſhall be carefully inſerted.

A Collection of Addreſſes. N° 2.

PART II.

Kenſington, June 24. 1710.

The following Addreſs was this Day preſented to Her Majeſty, by John Kynaſton, Eſq; introduc'd by Mr. Vice-Chamberlain; which was receiv'd very graciouſly, and Mr. Kynaſton had the Honour to kiſs Her Majeſty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes of the ancient Town of Shrewſbury, in the County of Salop, and other Inhabitants.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign!

WE, Your Majeſty's moſt Loyal and Obedient Subjects, are ambitious of diſtinguiſhing ourſelves, as we have ever done to Your Royal Anceſtors, ſo particularly to Yourſelf, by our ſteady and unſhaken Duty and Allegiance. Shrewsbury Town.

And the rather, we beg Leave to Addreſs ourſelves to the Throne at this Time, becauſe many of us have been publickly miſrepreſented, as Perſons diſaffected to Your Government, or, at leaſt, countenancing ſuch as are ſo, at the laſt Aſſizes held at this Town.

Wherefore, we look upon it as our indiſpenſable Duty, to endeavour, in the moſt ſubmiſſive Manner, to recommend ourſelves to Your Royal Favour, by profeſſing, ſolemnly, that none of us ever gave the leaſt Occaſion for ſuch Miſrepreſentations, but to diſclaim and deteſt all Principles tending to ſubvert Your juſt and hereditary Title and Authority; all Doctrines repugnant to the truly Apoſtolical Church, eſtabliſh'd by Law; all Attempts to fruſtrate the Proteſtant Succeſſion in the Line of Hanover; and all the reſtleſs Deſigns of thoſe who aim at aſperſing unjuſtly their Fellow-Subjects, and, conſequently, animating our Enemies abroad, and creating groundleſs Diviſions and Jealouſies at home.

As hitherto we have endeavour'd to demean ourſelves conformably to theſe Profeſſions; ſo ſhall we, for the future, make it our ſtudy to maintain the ſame Character: And as a Proof of our Sincerity, whenever Your Majeſty ſhall think fit to call a new Parliament, we ſhall endeavour to make Choice of only ſuch Members, as, in the foregoing Reſpects, are of the ſame Principles with ourſelves; being thorowly ſenſible, that Perſons otherwiſe affected can never anſwer Your Majeſty's gracious Intentions, nor ever truly repreſent us.

May that God, by whom You reign, continue Your Succeſs for the Good of Europe; and Your Days, to the Joy of all Your dutiful People, as well as Terrour of Your ſecret and open Enemies; ſhall be our daily Prayers and Wiſhes. In Teſtimony whereof, we have hereunto affix'd our Common Seal, and ſubſcrib'd our Names this 26th day of May, in the Ninth Year of Your Majeſty's Reign.

Kenſington, June 25. 1710.

This day, the Two following Addreſſes were preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir Symon Harcourt Kt. introduced by the Right Hon. Thomas Coke Eſq; Vice-Chamberlain. Which Addreſſes the Queen receiv'd very graciouſly; and Sir Symon Harcourt had the Honour to kiſs Her Majeſty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the High-Sheriff, and Grand-Jury, at the Great-Seſſions held for the County of Cardigan; and likewiſe of the Deputy-Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, Clergy, and Principal Gentlemen of the ſaid County of Cardigan, the 4th day of May, 1710.

Cardigan County.

IF Your Majeſty's Title to the Crown were founded only on Your Princely Wiſdom, and Piety; If our Holy and Apoſtolick Church had nothing elſe but the Purity of its Doctrine to recommend it; good Subjects and good Chriſtians would, with all Alacrity, ſubmit themſelves to a Conſtitution ſo Regular, ſo Advantageous in all its Parts. But when Your Majeſty's Undoubted Right is derived from Heaven, veſted by Inheritance, and recogniz'd by the Laws; when our holy Church is Eſtabliſh'd, and guarded by the beſt Security the Law can give her; and, above all, by the infallible Promiſes of the Goſpel, that the Gates of Hell ſhall never prevail againſt her; 'tis moſt amazing, that any People (eſpecially thoſe who live under the particular Favour and Indulgence of Your Government) ſhould controvert the one, or attempt the Deſtruction of the other.

It is difficult to know, what Views any Body of Men can have by raiſing new and needleſs Queſtions about Your Majeſty's Title, or our Obedience, unleſs they expect a Liberty of Conſcience in Loyalty, as well as in Religion. But we humbly beg Leave to aſſure Your Majeſty, that, as we have a juſt Deteſtation and Abhorrence of all Schiſmatical and Antimonarchical Principles, which have, of late, been publickly profeſſed, and induſtriouſly propagated, with an intent to leſſen our Duty to Your Majeſty, and Veneration to our moſt holy Church; ſo we ſhall always be ready (by the Example of the unſhaken Loyalty of our Anceſtors in the worſt of Times) with our Lives and Fortunes, to ſupport and defend Your Majeſty's moſt Sacred Perſon, Regal Power and Government, the Church, and the Proteſtant Succeſſion as by Law Eſtabliſh'd, againſt all manner of Perſons and Innovations whatſoever. And as we have hitherto, ſo we ſhall continue to ſend ſuch Repreſentatives into Parliament, as ſhall act agreeably to theſe our moſt ſolemn and unalterable Reſolutions.

That Your Majeſty's Reign over us may be long and happy; that God would be pleas'd to have Mercy on our Church; and ſo rule Your Heart, that Your Majeſty (knowing whoſe Miniſter You are) may, above all things, ſeek his Honour and Glory: And that we, and all Your Subjects, (duly conſidering whoſe Authority You have) may faithfully ſerve, honour, and humbly obey Your Majeſty, in him, and for him, according to his bleſſed Word and Ordinance, are and ſhall always be the Prayers of Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Council, Burgeſſes, and principal Inhabitants of the Town of Cardigan, and alſo the Grand-Jury of the ſaid Town, at the Great-Seſſions held for the Grand-Jury, the Fourth Day of May, 1710.

Cardigan Town.

AS nothing (under God Almighty's Divine Providence) can ſo much contribute to the Safety of your Majeſty's Perſon, and the Monarchical Government of this Kingdom, as an entire and due Submiſſion and Obedience from your Subjects, founded on the Practice and Principles of the Church of England, and the Primitive and Apoſtolick Doctrine and Diſcipline thereof: So we are very ſenſible, that nothing can ſo effectually deprive us of all thoſe Bleſſings, as thoſe pernicious and unwarrantable Doctrines which, with great Induſtry, are, of late, ſet on foot, and taught, which tend to limit your loyal Subjects in the Meaſure of their Obedience to your Majeſty, and your Royal Succeſſors.

And it cannot but be matter of the greateſt Amazement, to find, that thoſe exploded Antimonarchical Principles ſhould, in ſo ſerene and happy a Reign, as that of your Majeſty, be again avowed, and ſet on foot. And as we are ſenſible, that 'twas that pernicious Doctrine that brought your Royal Grandfather (the beſt of Kings) to the Block; ſo we have juſt reaſon to fear, that unleſs ſome infamous and indelible Brand be put on them, ill Men may thereby be ſtirred up to the Diſturbance of your Majeſty's Government; and in conſequence, the Government of theſe Kingdoms may once more be brought to Anarchy and Confuſion.

We, therefore, (your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects) do take this Opportunity to aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall, upon all Occaſions, with our Lives and Fortunes, ſtand by and defend your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Government, the Proteſtant Succeſſion, and the Church of England, as by Law Eſtabliſh'd, together with the truly Apoſtolical Doctrines and Diſcipline thereof, againſt all their Enemies, open or private, at home or abroad.

And ſince we are very ſenſible, that nothing can ſo effectually contribute to bring thoſe our loyal and juſt Reſolutions to paſs, as a careful and circumſpect Choice of proper Perſons to repreſent us in Parliament, we do aſſure your Majeſty, that in all our ſubſequent Elections, we will unanimouſly concur to chooſe ſuch a Perſon for a Repreſentative, as ſhall make it his conſtant and ſincere Endeavour, to ſee theſe our ſincere and juſt Principles carried on and accompliſh'd.

Kenſington,

Kenſington, June 26. 1710.

This Day, the following Addreſs of the City of Lincoln, was preſented to the Queen by Sir Tho. Meres, one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, attended by the Recorder of the ſaid City, and introduc'd by the Right Honourable the Lord Dartmouth, one of Her Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State. Which Addreſs Her Majeſty receiv'd very graciouſly.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriffs, Citizens, and Commonalty of the ancient City of Lincoln.

WE, Your Majeſty's moſt Loyal Subjects, altho' not the earlieſt in our dutiful Application to Your Majeſty, yet, in our affectionate Zeal, are always as forward as any of Your Subjects, for the Preſervation of Your Majeſty's Sacred Government: And as our whole Body are entirely of the Church of England, and for the Purity of its Doctrine, as by Law eſtabliſh'd; ſo we are taught by its Precepts to Worſhip one God, Honour the Queen, and to keep a Faith uncorrupted by any Latitudinarian Principles, that are inconſiſtent with Religion and Monarchy. We acknowledge Your Majeſty's undoubted Hereditary Right to the Crown of theſe Realms; we admire Your Majeſty's moſt Chriſtian Example, Mercy, and loving Kindneſs, to all Your Subjects, and Your Majeſty's great and wonderful Succeſſes abroad. Lincoln City.

We beg Leave to declare our utter Abhorrence of ſuch Perſons who deſpiſe all reveal'd Religion, and the Power thereof; who diſavow Obedience and Non-Reſiſtance, the eſſential Ligaments of a well-eſtabliſh'd Monarchy, and who ſeem to deny what the Scriptures dictate unto us, That all Power is of God, and that they that do reſiſt ſhall receive unto themſelves Condemnation.

We will obey Your Majeſty's Commands in Your laſt moſt gracious Speech to Your Parliament, in ſtudying to be Quiet, and doing our Buſineſs in our ſeveral Stations, not meddling with unneceſſary and endleſs Diſputes, nor joining ourſelves with thoſe that are given to Change.

And when Your Majeſty ſhall be pleaſed to call a new Parliament, we will take effectual Care to chuſe ſuch Repreſentatives that ſhall have a moſt tender Regard for the Church of England, Your Majeſty's Prerogative, and the Liberty of the Subjects.

May long Life, a Train of glorious Succeſſes, producing an honourable Peace, and an harmonious Diſpoſition and Union of all Your Subjects, always adorn Your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign; which ſhall be the conſtant Prayers of Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects. Given under our Common-Seal of the Guild-hall of the ſaid City of Lincoln, this Seventeenth Day of June, in the Year of our Lord, One thouſand Seven hundred and Ten.

Kenſington, June 26. 1710.

The following Addreſs was preſented to Her Majeſty, by John Curzon, Eſq; one of the Knights of the Shire for the County of Derby, accompany'd by Michael Burton, Eſq; one of Her Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace, and other Gentlemen of the ſaid County; introduc'd by the Right Honourable the Earl of Scarſdale. Which Addreſs Her Majeſty receiv'd very graciouſly; and the Gentlemen had the Honour to kiſs Her Majeſty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the High-Sheriff, Deputy-Lieutenant, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Derby.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

IT is not that we are leſs Loyal and Faithful to Your Majeſty than any of our Fellow-Subjects, tho' we ſo late approach Your Throne with ſincere and hearty Tenders of an inviolable Duty and Allegiance to Your Sacred Perſon. Derby County.

We are amaz'd to hear ſuch Abominable, Blaſphemous, and Antimonarchical Principles, as are daily publiſh'd, and induſtriouſly ſpread about, unpuniſh'd; and are ſo highly prejudicial to Your Majeſty's undoubted Title to Your Crown, and to the Apoſtolical Doctrines of our Primitive and Eſtabliſh'd Church.

Therefore we humbly preſume to aſſure Your Majeſty, that, with the utmoſt Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, we will maintain Your Majeſty's undoubted Title to Your Crown, and ſupport the Church of England, as by Law eſtabliſh'd, and openly avow her Primitive Doctrine ſo lately preach'd to us, (notwithſtanding the Cenſures of ſome, or that Heretical Poſition, That Princes may be Murder'd or Depos'd) being, as we are perſuaded, the only real Bulwarks againſt Popery and Fanaticiſm, and all other Evils that may be deſtructive either to Your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon, (under whom we enjoy ſo many ineſtimable Bleſſings) or to the publick Government and Peace of Your Kingdoms.

For which Bleſſings, we will always ſhew our grateful Acknowledgments; and in order to perpetuate them to us, will, in the choice of our next Repreſentatives in Parliament, endeavour to return ſuch Members only, who are of known and approv'd Loyalty to Your Sacred Majeſty, and whoſe Steadineſs and Zeal for our Eſtabliſh'd Church, its Primitive Doctrines, the Proteſtant Succeſſion, and our whole Conſtitution, may beſt expreſs the Sentiments of a Dutiful and Loyal County, whoſe Prayers and Wiſhes are to be long happy under the Beſt of Princes, and moſt Gracious of Queens.

Kenſington,

Kenſington, June 25. 1710.

The following Addreſs was preſented to Her Majeſty by John Robinſon, Eſq; introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Ormond; which Addreſs Her Majeſty receiv'd very graciouſly; and Mr. Robinſon had the Honour to kiſs Her Majeſty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble and unanimous Addreſs of the High-Sheriff, Cuſtos Rotulorum, Deputy-Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, Clergy, and other Gentlemen, of the County of Denbigh, aſſembled at the General Quarter-Seſſions held by Adjournment at Wrexam, the 16th day of May, 1710.

Denbigh County.

WHile Republican and Factious Spirits, the implacable Enemies of Your Majeſty's Family and Government, are, with ſuch Induſtry and Inſolence, reviving and maintaining thoſe pernicious and fatal Doctrines that pav'd the Way to the Execrable Murder of Your Majeſty's Royal Grandfather, and laid theſe Kingdoms in Deſolation and Ruin, by ſubverting the Conſtitution both in Church and State; Permit us (Moſt Gracious Sovereign) Your moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, to approach Your Throne, and with equal Zeal and Reſolution, to declare, that we do, from the bottom of our Hearts, abhor and deteſt all thoſe Traiterous and Damnable Poſitions, which aſſert the Legality of Depoſing or Reſiſting Princes upon any Pretence whatſoever; or that the People of this Nation, either collectively or repreſentatively, have any coercive Power over the Kings or Queens of this Realm; and that we will, at the utmoſt Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, defend Your Majeſty's Perſon and Hereditary Title to the Throne of Your Anceſtors; the Succeſſion in the Proteſtant Line; and the eſtabliſh'd Doctrines, Diſcipline, and Worſhip of the moſt Pure and Apoſtolick Church of England, againſt all the open Aſſaults of foreign Enemies; and treacherous Attempts of pretended Friends at Home.

In order to prevent, as much as in us lies, theſe Fundamentals of our Conſtitution from being ever again ſo much as queſtion'd, we will continue to chooſe ſuch Repreſentatives, as will firmly adhere to the inſeparable Intereſt of Monarchy and Epiſcopacy, and who are loyal and affectionate Subjects to Your Majeſty, not out of Intereſt, but Principle, and Uniform, not Occaſional Sons of the Church of England.

May Your Majeſty live long, to Adorn the Crown You wear, and may Your Gracious Intentions (ſo often expreſs'd from the Throne) to protect the Eſtabliſh'd Church of England, be ever ſucceſsful; and when it ſhall pleaſe the Great and Good GOD (whoſe Authority You have, and to whom alone You are accountable for the Execution of it) to put a Period to Your Earthly Empire, may He receive You to Himſelf, and reward Your Pious Care of His Church-Militant here on Earth, with a far more Exceeding and Eternal Weight of Glory, in His Triumphant One in Heaven.

Note, This Paper is deſign'd to be continu'd, and ſold by John Morphew near Stationers-Hall; Price 2 d.
To whom Gentlemen are deſir'd to ſend Exact Tranſcripts of ſuch Addreſſes as ſhall come to their Hands, and they ſhall be carefully inſerted.

A Collection of Addreſſes. N° 3.

PART II.

Kenſington, June 24. 1710.

This Day, the following Addreſs was preſented to Her Majeſty, by Sir John Packington, Bar. introduced by the Right Honourable Tho. Coke, Eſq; Vice-Chamberlain. Which Addreſs the Queen receiv'd very graciouſly; and Sir John Packington had the Honour of kiſſing Her Majeſty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Deputy-Lieutenants, Juſtices of Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Pembroke, whoſe Names are ſubſcrib'd.

AMong all the glorious Titles that adorn the Imperial Crown of this Realm, nothing gives ſo great a Luſtre to it (except Your Majeſty's wearing it) as that of Your Majeſty's being Defender of the Faith. Pembroke County.

All the other Branches of Your Majeſty's Power, (tho' of Divine Inſtitution) ſeem ordain'd for the Temporal Good of Humane Society, and to reſpect ſecular Conſiderations; but this is a much more high and exalted Dominion, deriv'd from the Hand of God, by which Your Majeſty is entruſted with the Guardianſhip and Protection of His ſacred Rights on Earth, and are more peculiarly entituled to the noble Denomination of being his Vicegerent.

It cannot, therefore, but be Matter of publick Sorrow and Amazement, to obſerve the prodigious Growth of Atheiſm and Blaſphemy, Vice and Immorality, and the open Profeſſion of ſuch Heretical and Dangerous Doctrines and Poſitions as tend immediately to ſubvert the Government of this Nation, both in Church and State, and this in Defiance of the Noble Pattern of Piety which Your Majeſty ſets before us in Your own Example, the frequent Proclamations iſſu'd out, by Your Majeſty, to diſcourage ſuch wicked and deteſtable Purpoſes and Practices; and in Violation of the many good Laws for the preventing ſo great Miſchiefs, which, if not timely remedied, will draw down the Divine Judgment on this Nation.

We, therefore, out of the deep and ſorrowful Senſe we have of this impending Danger, of our Duty to Almighty God, and inviolable Obedience and Fidelity to Your Majeſty, beg Leave to aſſure Your Majeſty, that as we will faithfully and zealouſly maintain and defend Your Majeſty's Perſon, Regal Power and Government, and the Succeſſion in the Proteſtant Line, ſo will we unite our moſt powerful Endeavours, in purſuing all ſuch Meaſures as Your Majeſty ſhall judge moſt effectual to diſcountenance and ſuppreſs all Blaſphemy, Vice, and Immorality, and to defeat and diſappoint all ſuch Wicked Deſigns as ſhall at any time be found carrying on by any Perſons whatſoever, to ſubvert Your Majeſty's Government, or the Proteſtant Succeſſion; to undermine and overthrow our Holy Church, as by Law eſtabliſh'd; or to alter or change the truly Apoſtolical Doctrine and Diſcipline thereof.

Kenſington, June 24.

The following Addreſs of the Borough of Saltaſh, was preſented to the Queen by Alexander Pendarves, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, introduc'd by Mr. Vice-Chamberlain. Which Addreſs Her Majeſty receiv'd very graciouſly; and Mr. Pendarves had the Honour to kiſs Her Majeſty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Free Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants of Your Majeſty's ancient Dutchy-Borough of Saltaſh, in the County of Cornwall.

Moſt gracious Sovereign!

Saltaſh Dutchy-Borough.

THE juſt Senſe we have of Your Majeſty's Hereditary and Undoubted Right and Title to the Crown of Your Royal Anceſtors, obliges us, Your moſt faithful Subjects, to take this Opportunity of expreſſing our ſincere Zeal for Your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and the Succeſſion in the Proteſtant Line, as by Law Eſtabliſh'd.

We therefore humbly beg Leave to repreſent to Your Majeſty, our utter Abhorrence of all Antimonarchical and Republican Tenets, which can only tend to diſturb the Peace and Tranquillity of Your Glorious Reign, and create Heats and Diviſions among Your Subjects; And upon this occaſion, we ſolemnly aſſure Your Majeſty, that as our preſent Repreſentatives in Parliament have given full Proof of their ſteady Loyalty to Your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon, and hearty Affection to our Holy Apoſtolical Religion; ſo we will always take care to elect Perſons of unſpotted Honour, Courage, and Fidelity; and, to the utmoſt of our Power, endeavour to ſupport the preſent happy Conſtitution, in Church and State, againſt all Oppoſers whatſoever.

June 28. 1710.

The following Addreſs was preſented to Her Majeſty, by the Honourable James Johnſton, Eſq; one of the Members of Parliament for the Borough of Ilceſter; he being introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Shrewsbury. Which Addreſs Her Majeſty receiv'd very graciouſly.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign!

Ilceſter Borough.

WE, Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects, the Bailiff, Capital Burgeſſes, Miniſter, and other Inhabitants of Your Majeſty's ancient Borough of Ilceſter, in the County of Somerſet, beg Leave, in this nice Conjuncture, to aſſure Your Majeſty of our ſteady undiſſembled Loyalty and Affection to Your Sacred Perſon, Legal Prerogative, and Hereditary Title to the Crown.

We ſhall be always ready, with all that is dear to us, to ſecond Your Majeſty's Zeal and Care for the eſtabliſh'd Church, and its wholſome Doctrines, againſt all its open Enemies and pretended Friends; And, in an enſuing Parliament, our Repreſentatives ſhall be ſuch, as, we hope, will manifeſt our Principles to be agreeable to our Profeſſion, by effectually aſſiſting Your Majeſty in reſtraining Tyranny Abroad, and Antimonarchical Principles at Home.

We beſeech the Almighty, for the Common Good of Mankind, and the Particular Bleſſing of Your own happy People, that Your Majeſty may both receive the Reward of Your Goodneſs, Piety, and other Princely Vertues, in a long and proſperous Reign over us here, and in endleſs Felicity hereafter. Theſe are, and ever ſhall be, the moſt ſincere Prayers of,

Your Majeſty's moſt Loyal, Dutiful, and Obedient Subjects.

The following Addreſs from the Parts of Lindſey, in the County of Lincoln, was preſented to the Queen by Charles Caldecot, Eſq; accompany'd by Sir Tho. Meres, Charles Hall, Gilbert Brown, John Sibthorp, Eſqs; and other Gentlemen; introduc'd, at Her Majeſty's ſpecial Command, by her Grace the Dutcheſs of Ormond; which Addreſs the ſaid Mr. Caldecot read to the Queen: And, as Her Majeſty was pleas'd to receive it very graciouſly; he, and the reſt of the Gentlemen with him, had the Honour of kiſſing Her Majeſty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Juſtices of the Peace, Clergy, Gentlemen, and others, of the Parts of Lindſey, in the County of Lincoln.

MADAM,

THE Principles of Sedition and Rebellion, of Atheiſm and Irreligion, of late ſo inſolently printed, publiſh'd and defended, to the Diſhonour of Almighty God, the Scandal of the Chriſtian Religion, the Subverſion of the Church of England, and the Danger of Your own Crown and Dignity, juſtly call for the higheſt Indignation and Reſentment from Your Majeſty, and us, Your moſt faithful and loyal Subjects. Lindſey Parts.

After the ſeveral publick Aſſurances Your Majeſty has given Your People of the Safety of the Church of England under Your Majeſty's happy Government, and the juſt Reaſon we have to depend upon Your Royal Word, we cannot but look upon all Perſons who preſume to diſturb the Peace of the Church, and the Quiet of Your Majeſty's Reign, by publiſhing and maintaining Principles of Reſiſtance, ſo contrary to the Chriſtian Doctrine, ſo repugnant to the Laws of the Land, and ſo unneceſſary under Your Majeſty's Government, to be the moſt daring of all Your Majeſty's Enemies.

As that never to be forgotten Rebellion, which began in Forty One, and was attended with ſuch fatal Conſequences to Your Majeſty's Royal Family, and theſe Kingdoms, had its Foundation upon ſuch Maxims, which did, and muſt of Neceſſity, draw all Forms of Government, both of Church and State, into Confuſion; ſo we, with all Humility, beg Your Majeſty to believe, that all Orders and Degrees of Men whatever, who, at this Time, promote, countenance, or encourage the Principles of Reſiſtance, Schiſm, and falſe Doctrine, have in view the utter Deſtruction of Your Majeſty's Hereditary Title and Government; the abſolute Defeat of the Proteſtant Succeſſion in the moſt illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover; and, to complete all, the final Diſſolution of this our moſt noble and happy Conſtitution.

For the Prevention of theſe black and impending Miſchiefs, with the utmoſt Sincerity of our Hearts, we promiſe, upon all Occaſions, with the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, and all that is dear unto us, to protect and defend Your Majeſty's moſt Sacred Perſon and Government, againſt all the cloſe and ſubtil Contrivances of Your ſecret Enemies at home, as well as the open Practices and Attempts of thoſe abroad; with the ſame Chearfulneſs and Reſolution, we will always join with Your Majeſty, in the Support and Defence of the Church of England, as by Law eſtabliſh'd; and, after the moſt unhappy Demiſe of Your Majeſty, without Iſſue, with the ſame Zeal and Conſtancy, we ſhall endeavour to deliver our Conſtitution, entire, to the moſt Serene Houſe of Hanover.

As the only Hopes of our common Happineſs and Welfare, next under God, immediately depend upon the Protection of the Church of England, and the Safety of Your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Government, we once more preſume to give Your Majeſty this further Aſſurance, that we think we can never do enough for the Preſervation of ſo pure a Church, and ſo good a Queen.

June 22. 1710.

This day the following Addreſs was preſented to Her Majeſty by William Monſon Eſq; being introduc'd by the Lord-Chancellor.

Hertford Borough.

Moſt Dread Sovereign!

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the principal Inhabitants and Freemen of Your Majeſty's Borough of Hertford, being informed, that an Addreſs hath lately been preſented to Your Majeſty, in the name of the Mayor, Aldermen, Freemen, and Inhabitants of Your ſaid Borough, do humbly beg Leave to aſſure Your Majeſty, that we concur with them, in our hearty Deteſtation of all Seditious and Rebellious Doctrines and Poſitions, particularly thoſe which have been ſo lately, and ſo juſtly condemned by Your Majeſty's High Court of Parliament.

The Perſons truly dangerous to Your Majeſty, and the Proteſtant Succeſſion, are thoſe who traduce the Honour and Juſtice of the Revolution; thoſe who ſeditiouſly ſuggeſt the Church to be in Danger under Your Majeſty's Adminiſtration; thoſe who ſcandalouſly Miſrepreſent the Nation as ſunk deeper into Atheiſm and Infidelity in this time of Your Majeſty's Glorious and Pious Reign, than formerly; thoſe who preſume to arraign and call in queſtion Your Majeſty's moſt wiſe and excellent, as well as moſt ſucceſsful Adminiſtration; and laſtly, thoſe who endeavour to ſupport and give Countenance to any Perſon whatſoever, who has been convicted of theſe exorbitant Offences.

We cannot, therefore, go ſo far, as to concur with any Inſinuation which ſeems to be made uſe of to induce Your Majeſty to diſſolve the preſent Parliament, who deſerve ſo well of Your Majeſty, and the Britiſh Nation.

On the contrary, we perſuade ourſelves, that whatever Endeavours ſhall be made uſe of in chooſing Repreſentatives for this Borough, we ſhall be able to be Repreſented as we now are, and have always been, except at a time when our Right and Freedom of Election was unjuſtly invaded.

The humble Addreſs of the Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the Weſt-Riding of the County of York, was preſented to Her Majeſty by William Lowther, Eſq; introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Bolton.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, within the Weſt-Riding of the County of York.

York Weſt-Riding.

Moſt gracious Sovereign!

OUR true Affection to Your Majeſty and Government is ſuch, we could not omit congratulating Your Majeſty upon the Glorious Succeſs of Your Forces over the French, in breaking thro' their Lines; tho' they have been ever ſince the laſt Campagne in making them as ſtrong as poſſible, and gathering all their Forces to defend them: Yet no ſooner did Your Troops appear, but their whole Army vaniſhed like Smoak; and tho', in all humane probability, we might have expected to have loſt Thouſands, we ſcarce loſt Five Men; which we cannot attribute to any thing but Your Majeſty's Piety and Vertue, which draws a Bleſſing upon all you undertake; and thro' which, as Moſes was to the Iſraelites, a Wall, to defend them, againſt the juſt Judgments of God for their continual Provocations, by his inceſſant Prayers; ſo has Your Majeſty been to this Nation, or elſe we had long ſince been ruined, and haraſſed, as the reſt of our neighbouring Countries are, by having always War in the midſt of them; which muſt have been our Fate, had not the happy Union of Your Two Kingdoms, and the humbling of France, been brought to Perfection in Your Reign.

And it ſhall be our utmoſt care to defend the Church of England as by Law eſtabliſh'd, the Proteſtant Succeſſion, Toleration, and Union, thinking our Lives and Fortunes of no farther uſe to us, than whilſt we are able to ſupport Your Majeſty and Government, againſt all Your Enemies; and then we need not have any Apprehenſion of the Tyranny of France, nor of thoſe who approve their Religion and Government, whether at Home, or Abroad.

Note, This Paper is deſign'd to be contin'd, and ſold by John Morphew near Stationers-Hall; Price 2 d.
To whom Gentlemen are deſir'd to ſend Exact Tranſcripts of ſuch Addreſſes as ſhall come to their Hands, and they ſhall be carefully inſerted.

A Collection of Addreſſes. N° 4.

PART II.

June 11.

This day the following Addreſs of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Berks, was humbly preſented, and read to Her Majeſty by Sir John Stonehouſe, Bar. one of the Knights of the Shire, accompany'd by ſeveral Gentlemen of that County; introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Northumberland: Which Addreſs was graciouſly receiv'd by Her Majeſty; and Sir John Stonehouſe, and the other Gentlemen with him, had the Honour of kiſſing Her Majeſty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Berks.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

WE, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Berks, humbly beg Leave to join with the reſt of Your Dutiful Subjects, in Acknowledging the Bleſſings, and Congratulating the Proſperity of Your Reign. Berks County.

We likewiſe take this ſeaſonable Opportunity, of declaring our utter Abhorrence and Deteſtation of all Antimonarchical Principles, Schiſmatical Opinions, and Blaſphemous Tenets, ſuch as, of late Years, eſpecially, have been ſo induſtriouſly ſpread by a bold and dangerous Faction, in Defiance to all the Laws of God, and Your Majeſty's expreſs Commands to the contrary, ſignified by Your ſeveral Proclamations.

The Happineſs which is peculiar to us in this Country, of enjoying Your Majeſty's Preſence ſo frequently, inſpires us with more than ordinary Zeal for the Preſervation of Your Royal Authority, which we freely and voluntarily offer You our Lives and Fortunes to ſupport, againſt all Perſons, of what Denomination ſoever, either Papiſts or Republicans, who have pretended to bring in Queſtion Your undoubted Hereditary Title to theſe Realms. We lay our very Hearts at Your Feet. The Aſſurances we preſume to give You, have neither been diſorderly, tumultuouſly, or clandeſtinely procur'd, and proceed from no other Motive, but the Senſe which all true Chriſtians, juſtly provok'd, ought to have of Religion, and all good Subjects of Allegiance.

If there is any Spirit of Malignancy yet remaining, any Doctrine of Reſiſtance ſtill ſubſiſting, which neither the Mercy of Your Royal Progenitors, nor Your own exemplary Piety, and unparallel'd Goodneſs, have been able to overcome, God Almighty muſt have harden'd the Hearts of ſuch Men, that his Divine Juſtice may, at laſt, overtake an incorrigible Race, which the Royal Clemency has ſo often condeſcended to ſpare.

That there may be nothing wanting in us, to diſappoint the Hopes of ſo perverſe a Generation, nothing omitted to maintain Your Majeſty in Your juſt Rights, and Royal Prerogative, to preſerve and ſupport our excellent Conſtitution both in Church and State, againſt all Invaſions, or Innovations; to ſecure and protect the Lives, Liberties, and Properties of our Fellow-Subjects, from all Violence and Oppreſſion; and to confirm and continue the Regal Succeſſion, as our Laws have wiſely provided, in the Proteſtant Line. Whenever Your Majeſty ſhall graciouſly think fit to call a New Parliament, we will uſe our utmoſt Endeavours to be repreſented by ſuch Members only, as we are well aſſur'd are of Monarchical Principles, obedient Sons of the Church, and affected, as we ourſelves are, with the moſt dutiful and diſintereſted Zeal to Your Sacred Perſon and Government.

Kenſington, July 11. 1710.

This Day the following Addreſs was preſented to Her Majeſty, by Simon Harcourt Eſq; introduc'd by the Right Hon. the Earl of Abingdon. Which Addreſs the Queen receiv'd very graciouſly; and Mr. Harcourt had the Honour of kiſſing Her Majeſty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Obedient Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants, of the Borough of Abingdon, in the County of Berks.

Abingdon Borough.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

WE ſhould be inexcuſable, did we not join with the reſt of Your faithful and loyal Subjects, in expreſſing our utmoſt Zeal for the Support of Your Majeſty's Throne, at a time when it is undermin'd by Factious and Seditious Perſons, who will not allow the Law, which Your Majeſty hath always made the Meaſure of Your Power, to be the Rule of their Obedience; and do, with equal Boldneſs and Ingratitude, ſpread the worſt of Principles in the beſt of Reigns.

We cannot, without Horror, reflect on the mighty Deluge of Blaſphemy and Prophaneneſs which hath, of late Years, broke in upon us, and threaten'd the Subverſion of the Chriſtian Faith, that Rock on which this excellent Church (the pureſt Branch of the Church of Chriſt) ſtands, and will, we truſt, under the auſpicious Protection of Your Majeſty and Your Proteſtant Succeſſors, ſtand and flouriſh for ever.

There is nothing ſo valuable and dear to us, but what we are ready to hazard for the Maintenance of Your Majeſty's Hereditary Title, and Royal Prerogative, and for the Security of this Church, by whomſoever, and in what manner ſoever attack'd and invaded: We look upon the Enemies and Friends of theſe to be the ſame, and their Intereſts to be ſo cloſely united, that whoſoever ſhall go about to divide, muſt intend to deſtroy them.

Whenſoever Your Majeſty ſhall be graciouſly pleaſed to exert that lawful Authority, which God and the Conſtitution have lodg'd in Your Majeſty's Hands, we doubt not but 'twill ſoon appear, that theſe Enemies of Religion and Monarchy are as inconſiderable for their Number and Intereſt, as they are deteſtable for their Principles and Practices.

For ourſelves, we do ſolemnly promiſe, that whenever Your Majeſty ſhall think fit to call a New Parliament, we will ſend up ſuch a Repreſentative, as ſhall, upon all Occaſions, act with a juſt Regard to the Rights and Liberties of his Fellow-Subjects, a ſincere Zeal for the Church of England, and an unſuſpected Fidelity to Your Majeſty.

May God Almighty bleſs Your Majeſty with Succeſs in ſubduing all the Enemies of our Peace and Proſperity, whether Domeſtick or Foreign, and grant Your Majeſty a long and happy Reign over us.

Kenſington, July 12.

This Day the following Addreſs was preſented to Her Majeſty by R. Creſwell, Jun. Eſq; introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Shrewsbury: Which was receiv'd very graciouſly, and Mr. Creſwell had the Honour of kiſſing Her Majeſty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiffs, Recorder, and Burgeſſes of the Corporation of Bridgnorth, in the County of Salop.

Bridgnorth Corporation.

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Recorder, and Burgeſſes of the Corporation of Bridgnorth, aforeſaid, hearing that our County has been miſrepreſented as diſaffected to Your Government, do take this Opportunity humbly to aſſure Your Majeſty, that we will ſtand by Your Majeſty's Perſon, Prerogative, and Government, Your Hereditary Title to the Throne, the Church of England, and Proteſtant Succeſſion as by Law eſtabliſh'd, againſt all Your Enemies abroad and at home; and will do our utmoſt Endeavour, when Your Majeſty ſhall be pleaſed to call a New Parliament, to elect ſuch Members as are Men of Monarchical Principles, Members of the Church of England, and Maintainers of her ſound and pure Doctrines, and Abhorrors of all Seditious, Republican, and Factious Tenets, that place Government in the People, and invade the Authority of the Almighty, by whom only Kings and Queens reign.

May Your Majeſty's Reign be proſperous, as it has been already in a wonderful manner; may Your End be late and peaceable, and crown'd with a Glorious and Immortal Reward, is the Prayer of,

Your Majeſty's moſt Loyal and Dutiful Subjects.

July 11.

Yesterday, the following Address was presented to Her Majesty, by the Right Honourable the Lord Bruce. Which Address Her Majesty receiv'd very graciously.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Borough of Ludgershall.

WE, Your Majesty's most Loyal and Obedient Subjects, the Bailiff, Voters, and Freeholders of Your ancient Borough of Ludgershall, in the County of Wilts, with the most profound Humility, crave Leave, among the rest of our Fellow-Subjects, to congratulate Your Majesty upon the happy Opening of this Campagne, the passing the French Lines, and the Reduction of Doway; such glorious Instances of Success, as must convince the ambitious Monarch, that nothing but Peace can stop the Growth of Your spreading Lawrels. Ludgershall Borough.

We heartily wish there was no occasion, at this time, of declaring our utter Detestation and Abhorrence of all Levelling and Antimonarchical Doctrines; Doctrines which once overturn'd the best Constitution in the World, and made our Island a Field of Blood; Doctrines first started by the Church of Rome, and since, to our unspeakable Grief and Concern, reviv'd, and avowedly taught, by crafty and designing Men; the deform'd Off-spring of that Parent, which would have Kings to be their Vassals, and God's Vicegerents to be their Slaves.

That Your Majesty may long and happily Reign, over a willing, peaceable, and obedient People, and late, but assuredly, change this corruptible for an incorruptible Crown; and then, that the Scepter of this Kingdom, to the great Disappointment of our False Brethren, may be faithfully transmitted to the illustrious House of Hanover, are, and shall be the constant Prayers of Your Majesty's most Loyal, Dutiful, and Obedient Subjects.

The following Address was presented to Her Majesty from the Town and Port of Hyth, one of Her Majesty's Cinque Ports, by Julius Deeds, Mayor of the said Corporation; introduc'd by the Right Honourable the Earl of Dorset and Middlesex, Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, and Constable of Dover Castle.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty, with the rest of the principal Inhabitants of the Town and Port of Hyth, in the County of Kent, one of Your Majesty's Cinque Ports.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, in the number of those Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, who Congratulate the further Progress of Your Majesty's Arms, upon the Success of which, and a steddy pursuit of Revolution Principles, both our present Happiness and Hopes of a safe and lasting Peace, so much depend, do humbly crave Leave to repeat our due and grateful Acknowledgments to Heaven, and Your Majesty, for the many Blessings enjoy'd under Your most Auspicious Reign, founded and established on the late no less Divine, than Providential Revolution, which so wonderfully preserv'd the Civil State, and happily establish'd Church of England, and to which Your Majesty has shewn Yourself a Nursing Mother so very Beneficent and Tender, that Your Royal Bounty and Goodness has not been circumscribed within any Distinguished Party, or by the Time present, but has variously extended itself to the Good and Loyal of one and another Denomination; as also for the Peace and Happiness of late Posterity, more particularly and so pathetically declared from the Throne, at the satisfactory Close of the last Sessions of Parliament; and may that Your Satisfaction, together with many others, have no untimely Interruption, nor Your Majesty be frustrated in Your most just and earnest Hope of becoming the happy Instrument of that yet more desirable Union of the Hearts of all Your People in the Bond of mutual Affection, that so there may remain no other Contention among us, but who shall exceed the other, in contributing to advance our present Happiness, and secure the Protestant Succession. And let all the People say, Amen. Hyth Port.

St. James's,

St. James's, July 10. 1710.

This day the following Addreſs was preſented to Her Majeſty by Robie Sherwin, Eſq; introduc'd by the moſt Honourable the Marquis of Dorcheſter.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor and Burgeſſes of the Town and County of Nottingham, in the Common-Hall aſſembled.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

Nottingham Town and County.

WHen we look back upon the many Bleſſings of your Majeſty's moſt gracious Government, the Peace, Plenty, Liberty and Tranquility of your Majeſty's Subjects, while the greateſt part of the World feel the Miſeries of War and Tyranny, with their neceſſary Conſequences, Poverty and Famine; it fills us with Aſtoniſhment, that any Party of Men amongſt us ſhould be induſtrious to rob themſelves of the Happineſs they enjoy under your Majeſty's wiſe and juſt Adminiſtration.

It is evident to us, that ſuch Men are carrying on an Intereſt ſeparate from that of your Majeſty's, and the Good of their Country; and it is too apparent they aim at embroiling us in private and civil Diſſentions, ſince they every where join with, and are ſupported by, Papiſts, Nonjurors, and the perjured Favourers of your Majeſty's Enemies.

From this proceeds all their Pretenſions of the Church's Danger; their Breaches upon the Toleration; their Inſulting your Majeſty's peaceable Subjects; their Reflecting upon the Revolution; and their Reproaching your Majeſty's wiſe and mild Adminiſtration, by the faithful and vigilant Aſſiſtance of able Counſellors, and a well-choſen Miniſtry, which we have hitherto felt the good Effects of.

But above all, it is the Wonder and Abhorrence of your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, to ſee the ſame People flying in the Face of the Repreſentatives of their Country, your Majeſty's faithful Commons, inſinuating their Deſires of having them diſmiſſed, and aſſuming a Right of reproaching their Actions, at the ſame time that your Majeſty was graciouſly pleaſed to thank them for their vigorous Aſſiſtance to, and Concurrence with, your Majeſty, in carrying on the moſt juſt and neceſſary War, to the infinite Joy of your Majeſty's good Subjects, and to expreſs your Majeſty's Satisfaction in all their Proceedings.

Theſe things being conſider'd, obliged us to renew to your Majeſty, the Aſſurance of our Duty and Loyalty, and to expreſs, with all poſſible Humility, our utmoſt Reſolution of ſerving and defending your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, upon all Occaſions, againſt all your Majeſty's private and open Enemies; and in particular, by continuing to chooſe the like faithful Repreſentatives, as ſhall endeavour to merit the ſame Thanks, and the like Expreſſions of Satisfaction from your Majeſty, as our preſent Repreſentatives have done.

May God Almighty continue to bleſs your Royal Majeſty with Succeſs abroad, until your Majeſty has procured a moſt glorious and laſting Peace to theſe Kingdoms, and to your Majeſty's Allies; that your Majeſty may be the glorious Inſtrument of eſtabliſhing the Proteſtant Religion, and our Laws and Liberties; and by your Majeſty's mild Adminiſtration, may unite the Hearts of your Majeſty's Subjects, both to your Majeſty and to one another, that we may no longer deprive ourſelves of the Bleſſings of your Majeſty's juſt and merciful Government. This is the Prayer, and ever ſhall be the conſtant Endeavour of us,

Your Majeſty's moſt Faithful, and moſt Dutiful Subjects.

To which we have put our Common-Seal, this 5*th of* July, 1710.

Note, This Paper is deſign'd to be continu'd, and ſold by John Morphew near Stationers-Hall; Price 2 d. To whom Gentlemen are deſir'd to ſend Exact Tranſcripts of ſuch Addreſſes as ſhall come to their Hands, and they ſhall be carefully inſerted.

A Collection of Addreſſes. N° 5.

PART II.

Kenſington, July 29.

This Day, the following Addreſs from the Grand-Jury of the County of Southampton, at the Aſſizes begun July 18. in the Caſtle of Wincheſter, was preſented to Her Majeſty, by the High-Sheriff, and ſeveral of the Grand-Jury, unanimouſly; introduc'd by the Duke of Beaufort. Which Addreſs Her Majeſty receiv'd very graciouſly, and the Gentlemen had the Honour to kiſs the Queen's Hand.

Moſt gracious Sovereign!

THE Great and Glorious Succeſſes which have attended Your Majeſty's Arms, and thoſe of Your Allies, particularly in reducing the ſtrong and important Fortreſs of Douay, do fill our Hearts with Joy: That Your Majeſty may ſtill triumph, and that the Unanimity and Dutiful Allegiance of Your Subjects, may make You as happy at Home, as You are victorious Abroad, is what we moſt earneſtly and daily pray for. Therefore, it is with the greateſt Concern, that we obſerve the reſtleſs Endeavours of ſome Men to perſuade the World, that any other Principles than thoſe which are maintain'd by the Laws, and eſtabliſh'd Church of England, can avail to the Security of Your Royal Perſon and Government; or that ever thoſe Maxims which brought the Bleſſed Martyr to the Block, can ſupport his Progeny on the Throne. Southampton County.

We can bleſs God for all the Advantages of the late happy Revolution, without embracing all the Conſequences ſome Men draw from it: Our Fear of Popery ſhall never betray us into Fanaticiſm, nor leſſen our Averſion to thoſe Tenets which ſeem to be induſtriouſly advanc'd rather to prepare Men for another Revolution, than to juſtify the former. We therefore beg Leave, with all Humility, to repreſent to Your Majeſty our juſt and utter Abhorrence of thoſe Traiterous and Damnable Poſitions, which veſt the Supreme Authority in the People, and give them a Right of Reſiſtance, whenſoever they ſhall think fit to charge their Governours with Male-Adminiſtration. This we expreſs with the greater Zeal, being well aſſur'd, that if none of Your Subjects learn to reſiſt, the Pretender can never prevail, nor the Proteſtant Succeſſion in the Illuſtrious Houſe of HANOVER ever be defeated.

And ſince Your Majeſty's Title is deriv'd as well by Lineal Deſcent as Acts of Settlement, we think ourſelves in Duty bound to acknowledge Your Hereditary Right to the Imperial Crown of theſe Realms, againſt all Papiſts and Republicans who alone dare queſtion or oppoſe it.

May God long preſerve Your Majeſty to be a Support and Ornament to this Church and Nation; and to this end, we promiſe in our ſeveral Stations to puniſh and diſcountenance all Atheiſm, Blaſphemy, and Prophaneneſs, all Schiſm and Faction, which we conceive to be no ways inconſiſtent with that Regard due to Conſciences truly ſcrupulous, according to the Act of Indulgence, which we deſire they may enjoy in the full Limits the Law hath preſcribed.

And when Your Majeſty, of Your great Wiſdom, ſhall think fit to call a new Parliament, we doubt not to chooſe ſuch Repreſentatives as ſhall do their utmoſt to ſupport the Prerogative of the Crown, the Church of England as by Law eſtabliſh'd, and the Welfare of all Your People.

Kenſington, July 21.

The following Addreſs from the County of Hertford, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Ralph Freeman, jun. and Thomas Halſey, Eſqs; the Two Repreſentatives of the ſaid County, and William Gore, Eſq; introduc'd by the Right Hon. the Earl of Salisbury: Which Addreſs Her Majeſty receiv'd very graciouſly; and they had the Honour to kiſs Her Majeſty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, and Freeholders, aſſembled at the General Quarter-Seſſions for the County of Hertford, July 10. 1710.

Moſt Rightful Sovereign,

Hertford County.

WE your Majeſty's moſt faithful and obedient Subjects, have, with great Satisfaction, obſerv'd the many loyal Addreſſes, declaring their firm and inviolable Duty and Affection to your Majeſty, the Church of England, and the Proteſtant Succeſſion, in Oppoſition to, and Abhorrence of all Jeſuitical, Atheiſtical, and Schiſmatical Books and Principles, of late ſo boldly publiſh'd and maintain'd, and induſtriouſly diſpers'd among us: Which Addreſſes having been graciouſly receiv'd by your Majeſty; we, likewiſe, heartily joining with the reſt of our Fellow-Subjects in ſo grateful and neceſſary Declarations, do preſume humbly to give your Majeſty the ſame Aſſurances of our inviolable Duty to your ſacred Perſon, of our ſincere Affection to the Church of England, and of our firm Reſolution to maintain the Proteſtant Succeſſion, againſt all Oppoſers both at home and abroad.

And as your Majeſty has often, from the Throne, been pleaſed graciouſly to recommend Union among all your Subjects, we do aſſure your Majeſty of our ſincere Endeavours to promote the ſame; and do hope, by our tender Regard to all our Fellow-Subjects that are under the Misfortune of diſſenting from us, either to reconcile 'em to our Eſtabliſhment, or to create in 'em ſo much Modeſty, as to diſtinguiſh between a kind Indulgence, and a legal Eſtabliſhment.

We alſo congratulate your Majeſty upon the many and wonderful Succeſſes it has pleaſed God to beſtow on your Arms, and thoſe of your Allies; and we beg the Continuance of his Providence to make your Reign farther Glorious, and your Majeſty his Inſtrument in eſtabliſhing a ſafe and honourable Peace to Europe, and defending this Church and Nation againſt all its open and ſecret Enemies; and that your Majeſty may long live an Ornament and Security to both, are the conſtant and hearty Prayers of

Your Majeſty's moſt devoted and obedient Subjects.

Kenſington, July 16. 1710.

This day the following Addreſs from the Borough of Maldon, in the County of Eſſex, was preſented to Her Majeſty at Kenſington, by Sir Richard Child, Bar. one of their Repreſentatives; and John Comyns, Eſq; Serjeant at Law, their Recorder; introduc'd by the Right Hon. Richard Earl Rivers, Lord-Lieutenant of that County; which was receiv'd very graciouſly, and the Gentlemen had the Honour to kiſs Her Majeſty's Hand.

The humble Addreſs of the Bayliffs, Aldermen, Capital Burgeſſes and Commonalty of your Majeſty's ancient Borough of Maldon, in the County of Eſſex.

MADAM,

Maldon Borough.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, readily embrace all Occaſions to expreſs our juſt Senſe of the many Bleſſings your People enjoy under your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign; wherein we are at a Loſs what moſt to admire; your own bright and exemplary Piety to adorn; or, your Care to preſerve the Church of England as eſtabliſh'd by Law: The glorious Conduct and Succeſs of your Arms; the wiſe Choice or prudent Regulation of your Miniſtry: All excite our Wonder and Eſteem, all engage our Affection and Duty to a Princeſs inveſted with all the Right which can in any wiſe entitle to the Sovereignty over us. Permit us, then, to diſclaim the Principles and Practices of thoſe Men, who advance Republican Schemes and Poſitions; who ſpread the Notion of an Hereditary Right in one whom our Laws diſown to have a Being; and in your eaſy and indulgent Reign, revive the Doctrines of Reſiſting and Depoſing Kings, or rendring them accountable to the People. Permit us, at your Royal Feet, to renew the Profeſſion of our ſteady and inviolable Loyalty, who, as bound by the ſtrongeſt Obligations of Law and Religion, will conſtantly maintain a firm Allegiance to your Majeſty our Rightful Sovereign, reverence your ſacred Perſon, and in our Stations endeavour unalterably to preſerve the happy Conſtitution of your Government in Church and State, and that Succeſſion in the Proteſtant Line eſtabliſh'd by Law.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Free Burgeſſes, and other principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Helſton, in the County of Cornwal, aſſembled at the Guild-Hall of the ſaid Borough, the 21ſt of June, 1710.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

AS we are truly ſenſible of the ineſtimable Bleſſings the Nation in general, as well as this your ancient and loyal Corporation, (wherein is not one Diſſenter from the eſtabliſh'd Church of England) in particular, enjoy under your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Reign; ſo we humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will (as in Duty bound) at the Expence of our Lives and Fortunes, ſtand by, and ſupport your Sacred Perſon and Prerogative, the Proteſtant Succeſſion, and the Church of England as by Law eſtabliſh'd, againſt all Popiſh, Schiſmatical, and Fanatical Doctrines, of reſiſting Lawful Princes; which we deteſt and abhor, as impious, dangerous and deſtructive to our happy Conſtitution and Government. Helſton Borough.

That the Reſidue of your Majeſty's Reign over us may have a Series of Succeſſes over all your Enemies, both at home and abroad, and after a very long and happy Reign here, may your Majeſty become a glorious Subject to the King of Kings, whom you endeavour to imitate, and by whom you now reign, is and ſhall be the conſtant Prayer of,

Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

Kenſington, July 27.

The following Addreſs was this day preſented to Her Majeſty by Arthur Moore and William Coteſworth, Eſquires, Members of Parliament for the Borough of Great-Grimesby; being introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Shrewsbury, Lord-Chamberlain of the Houſhold; which Addreſs Her Majeſty receiv'd very graciouſly, and the Gentlemen had the Honour to kiſs Her Majeſty's Hand.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Common-Council, Burgeſſes, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Great-Grimesby, in the County of Lincoln.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

WIth all Duty and Affection, we join with our Fellow-Subjects, in repreſenting to your Sacred Majeſty, the Senſe we have of thoſe wicked and irreligious Poſitions that have been lately publiſh'd, to the Diſhonour of God, the Hazard of the Quiet of your Majeſty's Reign, and of the Church of England as by Law eſtabliſh'd, of which Church we profeſs ourſelves faithful Members. Great-Grimesby Borough.

When Moderation was promoted, as a Means to avoid Diſtinctions amongſt your Majeſty's Subjects, to preſerve Peace at home, and conſequently the better to carry on the War abroad, we heartily join'd therein; but it was with Aſtoniſhment we ſoon beheld ſome of thoſe Pretenders to Moderation unmask themſelves, and ſetting up the moſt dangerous of Diſtinctions, That no Man was to be accounted Honeſt, Faithful, or Juſt, but ſuch who were of Principles which (being examin'd) appear to be repugnant to Monarchy, contradictory to the Rules of Obedience laid down in the holy Scriptures, and to the Doctrines and Authorities of the eſtabliſh'd Church; the propagating of which Schiſmatical and Antimonarchical Principles, can admit of no other Conſtruction, than when your Majeſty's Adminiſtration ſhall be no longer pleaſing or profitable to ſuch Men, they will be ready for any other Government that will more gratifie their Intereſt and Ambition.

Theſe Inſults on Religion and Government, call on your Majeſty's Faithful Subjects to renew their Aſſurances, (as we unfeignedly do) That we will ſtand by your Majeſty with our Lives and Fortunes, in Support of your Majeſty's undoubted Hereditary Title to the Imperial Crown of theſe Realms, maintain the Proteſtant Succeſſion in the Houſe of Hanover, and the Church of England as by Law eſtabliſh'd; and that in the enſuing Parliament, we will elect ſuch Repreſentatives, as we are aſſur'd will uſe their utmoſt Endeavours to theſe Ends; and alſo concur in giving ſuch Supplies, and in making ſuch Proviſions for the Support and Credit of your Government, that your Majeſty (in Imitation of your Royal Anceſtors) may have Dependance ONLY upon your Parliament.

Kenſington,

Kensington, July 18. 1710.

This day the following Addreſs was preſented to Her Majeſty by the Rt. Hon. Henry Lord Newport, one of the Knights of the Shire for the County of Salop, being introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Shrewsbury.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Deputy-Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, and Grand-Jury, aſſembled at the General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace, held at Salop, for the ſaid County, the 11th day of July, 1710.

Moſt gracious Sovereign!

Salop County.

WE crave Leave, in all Humility, to addreſs your Throne, not with any Miſrepreſentations of our Fellow-Subjects, nor yet preſuming to buſy ourſelves in Matters improper for us, and which your Majeſty has been graciouſly pleas'd to declare to be of a very high Nature, reviv'd with ill Intention, and tending to foment our unhappy Diviſions; but with an unfeigned Zeal for the Safety of your Sacred Perſon, and the Honour of your Government; for the Security of the Proteſtant Succeſſion in the Houſe of Hanover, as ſettled by Act of Parliament; for the Proſperity of the Church of England as by Law eſtabliſh'd, and for the ancient undoubted Prerogative of your Crown.

We have always demeaned ourſelves conformably to theſe Profeſſions, and will, for the future, ſtudy to maintain the ſame Character.

And for theſe Reaſons, we can by no means join in any Inſinuations of the Danger of the Church of England, which we ſtedfaſtly believe, by the Bleſſing of God, to be in perfect Safety and Proſperity under your Majeſty's happy Adminiſtration. We utterly diſclaim all Endeavours to leſſen and diſparage the Conduct of your Miniſtry, which has ſo greatly advanced the Honour of your Reign, and the Glory of your Kingdom, and which, after a tedious and expenſive War, to which we have chearfully contributed our Shares, hath brought us in View of a ſafe and laſting Peace; and we muſt for ever diſapprove of all Meaſures which may have been taken by others, with deſign to create a Diſeſteem of the preſent Parliament. We are fully perſuaded, that a Submiſſion to the Supreme Power is our Duty as Subjects, and our Intereſt as we are hearty Well-wiſhers to the Government, under which we live. 'Tis neceſſary, even for the Support of your Royal Authority, and the Preſervation of our happy Conſtitution.

But we think ourſelves oblig'd to lay hold on this Opportunity, to expreſs our entire Satisfaction in thoſe late Proceedings, by which the Honour and Juſtice of the late happy Revolution, the Memory of our glorious Deliverer, your Majeſty's undoubted Title to the Throne of your Anceſtors, and the Settlement of the Crown in the Proteſtant Line, appear to us to have been ſo juſtly and amply aſſerted.

Madam, we preſume not to touch on thoſe important Matters, whereon your Princely Wiſdom is ſo conſtantly employ'd for the Good of your People, and leaſt of all, on that which concerns the continuing or diſſolving your Parliament; this is that inſeparable Prerogative of your Crown, which we, for our parts, will always defend, and muſt think, ought to be maintained inviolably. And we comfort ourſelves with the Aſſurance, that that Power will be always exerciſed by your Sacred Majeſty, with the moſt tender and wiſe Regard to the Welfare of your People, the Honour of your Government, and for the Safety and Liberties of Europe. And we crave Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that whenſoever your Royal Command ſhall call us to the Election of a new Parliament, we will endeavour to chooſe, and we doubt not but we ſhall be Repreſented, as we now are, by Perſons ſteady and zealous for the Honour and Service of your Majeſty, and your Government, and the Church of England as by Law eſtabliſh'd, and juſt and faithful to the Liberties of their Country.

Note, This Paper is deſign'd to be continu'd, and ſold by John Morphew near Stationers-Hall; Price 2 d. To whom Gentlemen are deſir'd to ſend Exact Tranſcripts of ſuch Addreſſes as ſhall come to their Hands, and they ſhall be carefully inſerted.

A Collection of Addreſſes. N° 6.

PART II.

Kenſington, July 30.

This day the following Addreſs was preſented and read to Her Majeſty, by Sir Thomas Style, Bar. High-Sheriff for the County of Kent, attended by ſeveral of the Grand-Jury, who were introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Beaufort: Which Addreſs was receiv'd very graciouſly by Her Majeſty, and all the Gentlemen had the Honour to kiſs Her Hand.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the High-Sheriff and Grand-Jury of the County of Kent, at the Aſſizes held at Maidſtone, the 25*th of* July, 1710.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

WE have long waited for this Opportunity of Profeſſing our Duty to Your Majeſty, and our Deteſtation of thoſe Principles and Practices, by which a Cabal of wicked Men once accompliſh'd the Deſtruction of this beſt conſtituted Church and Government. Kent County.

And it is with Grief we now obſerve to Your Majeſty, that whilſt Your Loyal Subjects are maintaining Your Hereditary Right, and aſſerting the Doctrine of Obedience taught by our Church, they are calumniated with the Names of Papiſts and Jacobites; and that they, who have always manifeſted their Zeal for our Eſtabliſh'd Religion, their Loyalty to Your Majeſty, their Tenderneſs to ſcrupulous Conſciences, their Regard to the Proteſtant Succeſſion, and the Liberties of the People, are branded with the Name of Party or Faction; ſuch Slanders as theſe can only proceed from reſtleſs Spirits, who are diſquieting the Minds of Your Loyal Subjects, with Notions deſtructive of all Forms of Government; and whoſe conſtant Practice it is, to impoſe on Your People, That Zeal for our Religion is Popery; Obedience to Your Majeſty Turkiſh Slavery; and a ſtrict Obſervance of their Oaths, at beſt, but a Perjur'd Friendſhip to Your Majeſty's Enemies.

When this is done in the Reign of the moſt Indulgent and Religious Queen, that ever bleſſed any Nation, we cannot but fear it is intended to diſturb this Happy Government, and to take from us our Religion and Liberties, which, by Your Majeſty's Wiſdom and Care have been always preſerved, and will, we doubt not, be deliver'd down inviolate to Your Proteſtant Succeſſors, in the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover.

May Your Majeſty ſteadily purſue thoſe Meaſures You have ſo wiſely taken, for the Preſervation of our Holy Religion, the Support of Your Crown and Dignity, and the Welfare of all Your People; and may Almighty God proſper Your Councils, and bleſs Your Arms, with a continu'd Glorious Succeſs, that we, and all Your Majeſty's Loyal Subjects, may enjoy the Bleſſing of a Laſting and Honourable Peace, which we fear ſuch Artifices have cauſed our Enemies to delay. Theſe are the true Sentiments and hearty Prayers of Your Majeſty's Dutiful Subjects.

N. B. That the Grand-Jury were ſome of the moſt conſiderable Gentlemen of the County, conſiſting of 5 Baronets, 1 Knight, and 21 Gentlemen, who unanimouſly agreed to, and ſigned the ſaid Addreſs.

Kenſington, July 29. 1710.

This Day was preſented to Her Majeſty the following Addreſs, from the Archdeacon and Clergy of the County of Stafford, by the Reverend Dr. Ryves, and the Reverend Mr. Taylor, &c. introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Beaufort. Which Addreſs Her Majeſty receiv'd very graciouſly; and the Doctor, and the reſt of the Gentlemen had the Honour of kiſſing Her Majeſty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Archdeacon and Clergy of the County of Stafford, within the Dioceſe of Litchfield and Coventry.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

Stafford Clergy.

WHen we conſider'd the many Strange and Unreaſonable Methods, which the moſt implacable Enemies of Your Majeſty's Government are continually making uſe of, in order to undermine it, particularly thoſe Two notoriouſly Falſe, tho' ſo much receiv'd Notions, that Your Majeſty's Title to the Throne of Your Anceſtors, is built upon the People; and the Doctrine of Reſiſtance; the former ſo much a Self-Contradiction, and the latter ſo apparently oppoſite to the written Word of God, we could no longer forbear Aſſembling ourſelves together, on purpoſe, on this Occaſion, that we might aſſure Your Majeſty, that we do, from our Hearts, believe, and will, to our utmoſt Power, defend and maintain Your Majeſty's undoubted Hereditary Right to the Throne, againſt all Pretences, as well as Pretenders, whatſoever; and that we do utterly deteſt and abhor that ſcandalous Doctrine of Reſiſtance, on any Account whatſoever. And this we do aſſure Your Majeſty, moſt heartily and ſincerely, without any Reſerve or Diſtinction in this Matter, that may hereafter be found out, when Men think they need it. And we ſhall always think it our neceſſary Duty to teach our People what we believe ourſelves.

May God protect Your Majeſty from all Your Enemies either at Home or Abroad; and when it ſhall pleaſe that God, to whom alone You are accountable, to Deprive us of ſo great a Bleſſing, and Reward You with an Everlaſting Crown, it is our moſt hearty Deſire, and we do moſt devoutly pray, that Your Temporal one may deſcend to the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover, to the lateſt Poſterity.

Kenſington, Aug. 1.

This Day, the following Addreſs of the High-Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Deputy-Lieutenants, Grand-Jury, and other Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Buckingham, met at the Aſſizes held for the ſaid County, at Ailesbury, on the 18th Day of July laſt, and alſo of the Clergy of the ſaid County, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Simon Harcourt, Eſq; Foreman of the ſaid Grand-Jury, and Thomas Chapman, Eſq; introduc'd by the Right Honourable the Lord Viſcount Cheyne. Which Addreſs Her Majeſty receiv'd very graciouſly, and they had the Honour to kiſs Her Majeſty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the High-Sheriff, the Juſtices of the Peace, Deputy-Lieutenants, Grand-Jury, and other Gentlemen and Freeholders, met together at the Aſſizes holden for the County of Bucks, at Ailesbury, in the ſaid County, on the 18*th Day of* July, 1710. and alſo of the Clergy of the ſaid County.

Bucks County.

WE, Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, do, with the utmoſt Acknowledgments to Your Majeſty, congratulate the Glorious Succeſſes of Your Arms, in Conjunction with thoſe of Your Allies, and, in great Humility, return You our unfeign'd Thanks for Your ſingular Zeal, at all Times, for the Maintenance of the Apoſtolical Doctrines of the Epiſcopal Eſtabliſh'd Church of this Kingdom, and for the Happineſs and Well-being of Your People.

And we do aſſure Your Majeſty, that we are, and always will be ready to ſacrifice all that is moſt dear to us for the Defence of Your Sacred Perſon, againſt the Pretender abroad, and all his Adherents, and alſo for the Defence of that Church, and the Proteſtant Succeſſion, againſt all Republicans and Factious Perſons whatſoever, whoſe Principles of Reſiſtance ſo boldly of late declar'd, and ſo dangerous to Your Majeſty's Government, we entertain a juſt Abhorrence of.

And we do farther aſſure Your Majeſty, That we ſhall, with the greateſt Induſtry, endeavour to ſuppreſs all Antimonarchical and Blaſphemous Tenets, whereby Your unthinking and undiſcerning Subjects may have ſuch wicked Notions infus'd into 'em, as may blindly lead 'em into the ſame dangerous Paths of thoſe egregious Miſcreants in Forty One, where they may be inſtructed to undermine and ſubvert our preſent Excellent Conſtitution both in Church and State, and diſturb the Serenity of Your glorious Reign.

And we do declare to Your Majeſty, that we will aſſert and ſupport Your Hereditary Title to the Crown of theſe Realms, have a tender Regard to the Rights and Liberties of our Fellow-Subjects, and concur with Your Majeſty in ſuch Meaſures as may moſt conduce to the Procuring an honourable and laſting Peace to Europe.

Kenſington,

Kenſington, Aug. 6. 1710.

This day the following Addreſs of the Borough of Launceſton, was preſented to the Queen by the Right Honourable the Lord Hyde and William Cary, Eſq; their Repreſentatives, and the Honourable George Granville, Eſq; their Recorder; introduc'd by the Right Honourable Thomas Coke, Eſq; Vice-Chamberlain of Her Majeſty's Houſhold. Which Addreſs Her Majeſty receiv'd very graciouſly, and they had the Honour to kiſs Her Majeſty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Deputy-Recorder, Aldermen, Town-Clerks, Commoa-Council, Free Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Dunheved, alias Launceſton, in the County of Cornwall.

Launceſton Borough.

Moſt gracious Sovereign!

THE bare-fac'd Inſults that have of late been publickly offer'd our ancient Conſtitution in Church and State, the induſtrious Maintaining and Propagating Principles that deſtroy our Common Chriſtianity, ſap the Foundation of all Government, and render the Fate of the beſt and greateſt of Princes ſubject to the Caprices of the vileſt and meaneſt of the People, cannot but raiſe a juſt Indignation in the Breaſt of all Your Majeſty's Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, and make them join their honeſt Endeavours, in their ſeveral Stations, to put a Stand to ſuch a growing Miſchief.

Permit us therefore, Moſt Dread Sovereign, Your Ancient and Loyal Borough of Launceſton, thus, publickly, to declare our utmoſt Deteſtation and Abhorrence of thoſe, and all ſuch Antichriſtian, Antimonarchical, Republican, and Factious Principles; and to render Your Sacred Majeſty our Lives and Fortunes, for the Support of Your Majeſty's Hereditary Right, our Ancient Conſtitution, and the Proteſtant Succeſſion as by Law eſtabliſh'd, againſt all Enemies whatſoever.

And as it hath been the Honour and Happineſs of our Borough, long to be repreſented by Two Gentlemen of unſpotted Loyalty, and unbyaſs'd Zeal for our Church and Government, ſo we do aſſure Your Majeſty, That when You pleaſe to call a New Parliament, we ſhall, by our electing them, or, in caſe they be taken from us, by our chooſing others of the like fix'd and ſteddy Principles, demonſtrate to the World our ſincere Affections for Monarchy and the Church.

That Your Majeſty may long enjoy the Imperial Crown of theſe Realms; that having at laſt reduc'd the exorbitant Power of France, and reſtor'd Peace and Liberty to Europe, Your Majeſty may be the happy Inſtrument of healing all our Breaches, and compoſing all our Domeſtick Diviſions, are the unfeign'd Prayers of Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects.

Kenſington, July 20. 1710.

This Day the following Addreſs from the Iſle of Ely, was preſented to Her Majeſty by David Rowlands, Eſq; accompanied by Mr. Thomas Rowlands, his Son, with George Mayfield, and Nicolas Mallabar, Eſqs; Juſtices of the Peace for the Iſle of Ely; being introduc'd by the Right Honourable the Earl of Orford.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Juſtices of the Peace, Clergy, Gentlemen, Grand-Jury, Chief Conſtables, Freeholders, and ſubſtantial Inhabitants of the Iſle of Ely, aſſembled at the General Quarter-Seſſions of the Peace holden for the Iſle of Ely, at Wisbich, the 11th Day of July, 1710. and from thence adjourn'd to Ely the 15th Day of the ſaid Month.

Iſle of Ely.

MADAM,

WE, Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, take this Opportunity to Congratulate Your Majeſty, upon the Welcome News of the taking of that ſtrong and important Town of Doway; not doubting, but Your Majeſty's glorious Troops, in conjunction with thoſe of Your Allies, under the Conduct of Your great General the Duke of Marlborough, will ſoon reſtore to us a firm and well-grounded Peace, and make the haughty Monarch very ſenſible of the many Injuries he has done to all his Neighbours.

We cannot, but with deep concern take notice, how ſome ill-deſigning Perſons induſtriouſly labour to keep up odious Diſtinctions and Diviſions amongſt Your People, contrary to Your Majeſty's particular Direction in Your laſt moſt Gracious Speech to Your Parliament, which was to ſtudy to be Quiet, and mind their own Buſineſs. And we alſo believe it a very unwarrantable Preſumption in them, to call in Queſtion the Conduct of not only the Greateſt, but the Beſt of Princes, ſparing not to make ſevere Reflections upon every Occaſion, on the Proceedings of the Parliament, and the Management of Your moſt Prudent and Able Miniſtry, which Your Majeſty has ſo happily made Choice of.

May Your Majeſty's Reign continue Long and Proſperous; Your and Our Enemies, both to Church and State, be diſappointed; May they, whoſe Duty and Office it is, preach and practiſe Peace; May the Church of England, as by Law eſtabliſhed, for ever Flouriſh, and the Gates of Hell never prevail againſt it; May the Proteſtant Succeſſion be firmly Supported, the Toleration kept Inviolable, and the Adherents and the Abettors of the Pretender, brought to Shame; is the Zealous, and Fervent Prayer of,

Your Majeſty's Loyal, and Dutiful Subjects.

Kenſington

July 30. 1710.

The following Addreſs was this day preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir Thomas Palmer, Bar. and David Polhill, Eſq; Knights of the Shire for the County of Kent, attended by ſome of the moſt conſiderable Gentlemen of the ſaid County; introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Dorſet and Middleſex.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Deputy-Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, Clergy, Gentlemen, and Freeholders of the County of Kent, aſſembled at the Aſſizes held at Maidſtone, the 25th of July, 1710.

Moſt gracious Sovereign!

Kent County.

WE, Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, do humbly beg Leave to congratulate Your Majeſty, upon the early and continued Succeſſes of this Glorious Campagne: And, at the ſame time, moſt gratefully to acknowledge the many Bleſſings we daily enjoy, under Your Majeſty's happy Adminiſtration. And it is with the utmoſt Deteſtation we reflect upon thoſe turbulent Spirits, thoſe Fomenters of Sedition, who, even in Your Majeſty's pious and exemplary Reign, would falſly inſinuate, that the Church, the moſt ſacred Part of our Conſtitution, is in danger, notwithſtanding the unparallel'd Victories with which God has bleſſed Your Majeſty's Arms Abroad, under Your moſt Faithful and moſt Succeſsful General; and the wiſe Adminiſtration of Affairs at Home, under a moſt Prudent and Well-choſen Miniſtry.

But ſuch is the Ingratitude of theſe Wicked and Deſigning Men; ſuch their Inveteracy to the Happy Revolution; and ſuch their Inconſiſtency; that though at preſent they think it for their Purpoſe ſeemingly to Approve Your Majeſty's being upon the Throne, yet they ſtick not openly to Revile and Traduce, as Odious and Unjuſtifiable, the Neceſſary Means that were us'd in bringing about the Happy Event.

But may that Providence, which has ſo peculiarly attended Your Majeſty throughout the whole Courſe of Your Reign, ſtill continue to Protect and Defend the Beſt of Queens.

And may our Holy and Apoſtolical Church ever be ſecured againſt all her Enemies, of what Nature ſoever, whether Popiſh or Fanatical; but more particularly, againſt thoſe Vipers in her very Boſom, who inſtil Groundleſs Fears, and Prophane her Sacred Name, in uſing it only as a Cloak to Deſigns they do not as yet think proper openly to Avow.

And as we do ſolemnly aſſure Your Majeſty, That we are ready with our Lives and Fortunes, to Maintain Your Majeſty's undoubted Title to the Crown, and to Defend the Church of England as eſtabliſh'd by Law; So we do not think it altogether unneceſſary, in this Prevaricating Age, to declare, That we mean that Title which is founded on the Happy Revolution, and confirm'd by the indiſputable Authority of Parliament; And by the Church, we mean no other, but our Holy Epiſcopal Proteſtant Church of England, eſtabliſh'd by the Laws at the Reformation.

And we likewiſe beg Leave to aſſure Your Majeſty, That when this Parliament (the Memory of which muſt be ever dear to all who wiſh well to their Country) has a Determination, we ſhall do our utmoſt ſtill to be Repreſented by ſuch as are zealouſly Affected to Your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, ſincere Promoters of the common Intereſt, and ſuch who ſhall endeavour to enable Your Majeſty effectually to ſecure the Proteſtant Succeſſion (for the Good of our Poſterity) againſt the Attempts of Your Majeſty's avowed Enemies Abroad, and from the more dangerous Perils of Falſe and Seditious Brethren at Home.

Note, This Paper is deſign'd to be continu'd, and ſold by John Morphew near Stationers-Hall; Price 2 d. To whom Gentlemen are deſir'd to ſend Exact Tranſcripts of ſuch Addreſſes as ſhall come to their Hands, and they ſhall be carefully inſerted.

A Collection of Addreſſes. N° 7.

PART II.

Kenſington, Aug. 11.

This day, the following Addreſs was preſented and read to Her Majeſty, by Robert Coker, Eſq; introduc'd by the Right Honourable the Earl Poulet. Which Addreſs Her Majeſty receiv'd very graciouſly; and Mr. Coker had the Honour to kiſs Her Hand.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The moſt humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Aldermen, Capital Burgeſſes, Governour, Aſſiſtants, Common Council, and other Free Inhabitants within the Borough of Dorcheſter, in the County of Dorſet, at a General Meeting held at the Guildhall there, the Firſt Day of Auguſt, in the Ninth Year of Her Majeſty's Reign, over Great Britain, &c.

Moſt gracious Sovereign!

WE, Your Majeſty's moſt Loyal and Dutiful Subjects, humbly beg Leave to aſſure Your Sacred Majeſty, that no Defect of Loyalty, no Want of Affection or Zeal for Your Royal Perſon and Government, hath kept us thus long Silent, whilſt our Fellow-Subjects, to their own Honour, and to our Joy, have been daily giving Your Majeſty the moſt Solemn Pledges of their Fidelity. But we have ſtood amazed and confounded at the Daring Inſolence and the Baſe Ingratitude of a Sett of Men, who, notwithſtanding they continually feel, and flouriſh under the benign Influence of the Mildeſt of Governments, and the Beſt of Princes, make it yet their Study, and their Buſineſs, to propagate the moſt pernicious and damnable Doctrines of Sedition and Rebellion, to corrupt and debauch the Minds of Your Majeſty's Subjects with lewd Antimonarchical Notions; and by teaching them New Meaſures of Obedience, to prepare and prompt them to Diſobedience. But, as we hope to ſee theſe Sons of Anarchy defeated in their Projects, and confounded in their Devices; ſo we muſt no longer forbear to give Your Majeſty our moſt Religious Aſſurances, that we, not only from our Souls, deteſt and abhor all Traiterous Poſitions, all Factious and Republican Principles, which tend directly to Confuſion, and to endanger the future Peace and Stability of Your Throne, but alſo, that we will, at all Times, and upon all Occaſions, ſtand by, and ſupport Your Royal Perſon, vindicate your Hereditary Title, and defend the Eſſential Rights and Prerogatives of Your Imperial Crown. Theſe, with our Excellent Church, ſo happily eſtabliſh'd amongſt us, we cannot but eſteem our choiceſt and deareſt Bleſſings: And, therefore, as we ſhall always concert, in our ſeveral Capacities, the moſt proper and honourable Meaſures to preſerve them; ſo we ſhall, in an eſpecial manner, take care to be repreſented in future Parliaments, by ſuch as are Eminent for their Loyalty to Your Majeſty, and conſpicuous for their Zeal to our Holy Church. Nor ſhall we ceaſe to beſeech and implore the King of Kings, whoſe Vicegerent You are, that, after Your Majeſty's late, very late Reſignation of the Throne of Your Anceſtors, and Your long and Princely Patronage of our Pure Church, there may never be wanting One of the Royal Race, a Proteſtant of Your Majeſty's own Principles, to wear the One, and defend the Other; that ſo, both our Church and Monarchy may for ever flouriſh, and for ever continue, to ſupport and eſtabliſh each other, to the Grief and Diſappointment of all that hate them, to the Converſion of thoſe that but moderately affect them, and to the Joy of ſuch as ſincerely love them.

This day, the following Addreſs from the County of Norfolk, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir John Woodhouſe and Sir Jacob Aſtley, Baronets, accompany'd by Sir Edm. Bacon, Baronet, and other Gentlemen of the ſaid County; introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Beaufort. Which Addreſs Her Majeſty receiv'd very graciouſly, and all the Gentlemen had the Honour to kiſs Her Majeſty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the High-Sheriff, Grand-Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, Clergy, and Gentlemen, at the Aſſizes holden at the Caſtle of Norwich, for the County of Norfolk, the 31ſt of July, 1710.

Norfolk County.

Dread Sovereign!

AFter the numerous Throngs of Addreſſers to Your Majeſty, whom ſome Proceedings of late have awaken'd to a more than Common Concern for Your Sacred Perſon and Government, permit us humbly to preſent ourſelves before You, with a Tender of our Hands and Hearts, which we aſſure Your Majeſty ſhall, on all Occaſions, be ready to vindicate and maintain Your juſt Prerogative againſt all open and ſecret Enemies whatſoever; Your Majeſty's Hereditary Title to the Throne of Your Anceſtors, being ſo inſolently attack'd by profeſs'd Republicans and Jacobites, the One directly aiming at the Downfal of the Monarchy, the Other at ſetting up the Pretender, and both at the utter Subverſion of our preſent happy Conſtitution, we think ourſelves oblig'd, at all times, to aſſert it, together with the Proteſtant Succeſſion in the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover.

Nor can we expreſs our Concern, that any of Your Majeſty's Loyal Subjects ſhould imagin the Publick Credit of this Nation can be ſupported by one Party of Men only; an Inſinuation that may well give Encouragement to the Enemy Abroad, and can ſerve at Home but as a Skreen to thoſe whom Your Majeſty, in Your Royal Wiſdom, may think proper to diſplace.

Your Majeſty's known Zeal for the truly Primitive and Apoſtolical Church of England, our only Bulwark againſt Popery; and the Honour of the Reformation gives a glorious Proſpect of its Flouriſhing every day more and more under Your Moſt wiſe and pious Adminiſtration; a Happineſs ſo great to all Your truly Faithful and Obedient Subjects, as affords no Room for any other Wiſh, Than that Your Majeſty may long reign over us, which is the ſincere and hearty Prayer of, Madam,

Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects.

Kenſington, Aug. 11.

This day the following Addreſs from the Borough of Great Marlow, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir James Etheridge, one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament; the Reverend Mr. Millecamp, and Mr. George Bruere; introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Beaufort. Which Addreſs ſhe receiv'd very graciouſly, and the Gentlemen had the Honour of kiſſing Her Majeſty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Conſtables, and other Inhabitants of Your Majeſty's ancient Borough of Great Marlow, in the County of Bucks.

Great Marlow Borough.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

WE, Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, and Faithful Sons of the entirely Engliſh Church, preſume, in all Humility, to approach the Throne, where ſits (immediately under God) the Cauſe of all our Bleſſings; congratulating the Succeſs of Your Majeſty's Arms, that yearly make Cities fall, and Fleets and Armies fly: But we can't but wonder, that whilſt we are bleſt with ſuch a Bright Example of Virtue, Vice ſhould make ſuch bold, ſuch publick Flights; and that under the beſt of Proteſtant Reigns, that Popiſh Maxim of Reſiſtance ſhould be introduc'd (even by thoſe whoſe conſtant Cry it is, The Romans will come in, and take away our Place and Nation) which is forbid by our Statute-Book, as well as our Bible.

We beg Leave to aſſure Your Majeſty, that we ſhall practiſe no Reſiſtance, but againſt Your Foes, of what Denomination ſoever; particularly thoſe, who deny Your Hereditary Right, propagate Vicious and Antimonarchical Principles, and would cruſh the Crown, and mar the Mitre: And that our conſtant Prayer is, That You may honour the Britiſh Diadem, till it can receive no additional Luſtre, nor Your People farther Happineſs. And that that Day of univerſal Sighing may be long, yea, very long put off, when You ſhall reſign this Earthly Crown, and receive an Immortal one, from the great Rewarder, as well as Only Ruler of Princes; and Your Diadem deſcend to that Proteſtant Head, on which the Wiſdom of the Nation has plac'd it.

N. B. That, of an Hundred and Thirty, which are the full Number of the now Electors, only Two refus'd to ſign the above Addreſs.

Kenſington,

Kenſington, July 31.

This Day, the humble Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Cambridge and Iſle of Ely, was preſented to Her Majeſty by John Bromley, Eſq; Knight of the Shire, being introduc'd by the Right Honourable the Vice-Chamberlain: Which was very graciouſly receiv'd, and Mr. Bromley had the Honour to kiſs Her Majeſty's Hand.

Moſt gracious Sovereign!

WE, Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, do humbly crave Leave to congratulate Your Majeſty upon that happy Turn which the Divine Providence ſeems lately to have given, for the Diſcouraging all Attempts hereafter, to diſcountenance and explode any true Primitive and Apoſtolical Doctrine. Cambridge County, and Iſle of Ely.

Permit us alſo, Dread Sovereign! on this particular Occaſion, to repeat our Aſſurances of that profound Duty and true Allegiance which we owe, and ſhall always pay to Your Majeſty; of that tender Regard we ſhall ever have of Your Sacred Rights and Prerogatives; of our moſt hearty Zeal and Affection for the Proteſtant Succeſſion in the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover, and of our juſt Concern for the Preſervation of the excellent Conſtitution of the Church of England; with ſo ſincere an Approbation of the Toleration granted to Diſſenters, that we wiſh to God, for the greater Security of our Church, 'twas inviolably preſerv'd, and extended throughout Your Majeſty's Dominions.

And as we are ſincere in what we now profeſs, ſo we cannot but think ourſelves oblig'd, by all the Ties Men can lie under, on all Occaſions, to oppoſe, to the utmoſt of our Power, the Attempts of all ill-deſigning and miſguided Zealots; and of all ſuch, who, being influenc'd by Republican and Schiſmatical Principles, ſhall, under the plauſible Pleas of the late happy Revolution, the Liberty of the Subject, and Moderation, moſt impudently diſpute Your Majeſty's Hereditary Title to the Crown You adorn; write and argue for the Reſiſting and Depoſing Princes, even under the Beſt of Governors; and betray the Rights and Intereſt of our Church, for whoſe Welfare, at the ſame Time, they pretend to have the trueſt Concern.

To ſecure ourſelves theſe Bleſſings, we beg Leave farther to aſſure Your Majeſty, we ſhall always moſt readily venture our Lives and Fortunes, and uſe our utmoſt Caution and Endeavours to chooſe thoſe Repreſentatives in Parliament, who, we are well aſſur'd, will concur with us in ſuch Meaſures and Principles.

May the Great and Good GOD, who has hitherto bleſt the Arms of Your Majeſty, and thoſe of Your Allies, with an uninterrupted Courſe of Succeſs, vouchſafe us that greater Bleſſing of a ſpeedy, honourable, and laſting Peace: And may the ſame good Providence, which, for our great Happineſs, has been pleas'd to ſet Your Majeſty upon the Throne of Your Anceſtors, continue You upon it for many Years; and, after a long and proſperous Reign over us, may You exchange Your Temporal for an Immortal Crown: Which are the earneſt Prayers of, &c.

Kenſington, Aug. 11.

This Day the following Addreſs was preſented to Her Majeſty, by Thomas Chaffin, Eſq; one of the Knights of the Shire for the County of Dorſet, introduc'd by the Right Honourable the Earl Poulett. Which Addreſs Her Majeſty receiv'd very graciouſly, and Mr. Chaffin had the Honour to kiſs Her Hand.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the High-Sheriff, Grand-Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, Clergy, and other the Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Dorſet, at the Aſſizes held at Dorcheſter, the 26th of July, Anno 1710.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

WHen Hereſies and Schiſms are ſo boldly and frequently maintained, and the Articles of our Faith, as well as the Diſcipline of our Church, exploded and ridiculed; when Your Majeſty's Hereditary Title is diſputed, and new and fantaſtical Opinions introduced, repugnant to Reaſon, and deſtructive to our Conſtitution; we ſhould think ourſelves very ill deſerving the Name of Good Chriſtians, or Loyal Subjects, did not we as openly declare our Abhorrence and Deteſtation of ſuch Impious and Rebellious Principles: And cannot but, with Amazement! conſider, That when the Favours of God Almighty have been ſo Signal and Remarkable towards us, and Your Majeſty's Exemplary Virtue and Piety ſo conſpicuous, there ſhould be found ſuch Malevolent Spirits amongſt us, ſo ungrateful and diſobedient to both. We beg Leave to aſſure Your Majeſty, that we will heartily reſent all Indignities offer'd to Your Prerogative, and the Honour of this Kingdom: That we will ſupport You in War, and obey You in Peace. Nor will ever be perſuaded, by any Examples whatſoever, to intrude, uncalled, into Your Majeſty's Councils, or ſacrifice the Whole to the Ambition or Intereſt of a Few; but will continue to ſend ſuch Members to repreſent us in Parliament, who ſhall defend Your Royal Perſon, the Proteſtant Succeſſion, and the Church as by Law eſtabliſh'd, againſt all Your Enemies both at Home and Abroad. Dorſet County.

Aug. 9. 1710.

The following Addreſs from the County of Cambridge, was, this Day, preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir Ruſhout Cullen, Bar. one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament; introduc'd by the Right Honourable the Earl of Orford.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the High-Sheriff, Grand-Jury, Deputy-Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, Clergy, and Gentlemen of the County of Cambridge, at the Aſſizes holden for the ſaid County, on Monday the 24th Day of July, in the Ninth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lady Anne, by the Grace of God, of Great Britain, France, and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, &c. Annoq; Dom. 1710.

Moſt gracious Sovereign!

Cambridge County.

WE, Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave to congratulate Your Majeſty upon the Reduction of the Strong Town of Douay; which is a freſh Inſtance of the Invincible Courage of Your Majeſty's Troops, joined with thoſe of Your Allies, and led by the Two greateſt Generals of the Age.

When we reflect on the continued Series of Succeſs, wherewith God hath been pleaſed to Bleſs Your Majeſty's Arms during the whole Courſe of this Juſt and Neceſſary War, we cannot but aſcribe it, next unto Him, to Your Majeſty's Wiſe Choice of the Duke of Marlborough; who, by his Courage and Vigilance in War, and by his Care and Prudence in Foreign Negotiations, hath rendred his Services too Eminent and Important ever to be forgotten by the Britiſh Nation.

Nor is Your Majeſty's Wiſdom to be leſs admired in the other Parts of Your Adminiſtration: The Unanimity and Secrecy of Your Councils, and the able Management of Your Treaſury, as they give unſpeakable Satisfaction to Your moſt truly and faithful Subjects at Home, and Your moſt firm and potent Allies Abroad; ſo they ſtrike Terror into Your Enemies, no leſs than the irreſiſtible Force of Your Victorious Arms.

We cannot but attribute it to our unnatural Diviſions at Home, that Your Majeſty's Endeavours to procure a happy and laſting Peace for Your Subjects, and all Europe, have hitherto proved ineffectual.

We humbly lay hold on this Opportunity, to expreſs to Your Majeſty our juſt Deteſtation of the late Rebellious Tumults, raiſed and fomented by Papiſts, Nonjurors, and other Enemies to Your Majeſty's Perſon and Government.

For our own parts, we do ſincerely and ſolemnly aſſure Your Majeſty, that we will inviolably adhere to our Oaths, to Your Majeſty's Government, and the Proteſtant Succeſſion, upon ſuch Principles as are moſt conſiſtent with thoſe Oaths, with the late glorious and happy Revolution, with Your Majeſty's Rightful and Lawful Title, and with the Act of Settlement of the Crown in the Proteſtant Line in the Houſe of Hanover, in oppoſition to the Pretended Hereditary Unalienable Right of any Popiſh Succeſſor whatſoever.

We do promiſe Your Majeſty, that, according to Your moſt pious Exhortation from the Throne, we will ſtudy to be quiet, and mind our own Buſineſs; moſt firmly believing our Church to be ſafe under Your Majeſty's preſent Adminiſtration, notwithſtanding the malicious Inſinuations of Your Enemies to the contrary: Heartily praying God long to continue Your Majeſty, what You ſo eminently are, The great Ornament and Defender of it.

Note, This Paper is deſign'd to be continu'd, and ſold by John Morphew near Stationers-Hall; Price 2 d. To whom Gentlemen are deſir'd to ſend Exact Tranſcripts of ſuch Addreſſes as ſhall come to their Hands, and they ſhall be carefully inſerted.

A Collection of Addreſſes. N° 8.

PART II.

Kenſington, Aug. 22.

This Day the following Addreſs was preſented to Her Majeſty by the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Father in God, Henry Lord Biſhop of London, accompany'd by above 150 of the Clergy of London and Weſtminſter: Which Addreſs the Queen receiv'd very graciouſly, and admitted them all to the Honour of kiſſing Her Hand.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop of London, and the Clergy of London and Weſtminſter.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

OUR Hearts have all along accompanied our Fellow-Subjects, the Genuine Sons of the Church of England, in their dutiful Applications to Your Majeſty from all Parts of the Kingdom; we have, with great Satisfaction, obſerved the Zeal which they have expreſſed in behalf of Your Regal Title and Prerogative, and the Indignation which they have ſhewn at the unprecedented Attempts lately made, to undermine, not only our Excellent Conſtitution in Church and State, but all Religion and Government. London and Weſtminſter Clergy.

We were the leſs eager to lay hold on this Occaſion of Approaching Your Throne, becauſe we had often and freely declared ourſelves on theſe Heads from the Pulpit, under the Eye of Your Majeſty, and in the Face of the whole World.

But the Time is now come, when we can no longer be innocently ſilent, ſince the Acknowledgment of Your Majeſty's Hereditary Title and Irreſiſtible Authority is openly and boldly Repreſented as a plain Declaration in favour of the Pretender.

We look upon the Clergy as deeply involved in this malicious Calumny, and therefore think ourſelves obliged to expreſs our utmoſt Abhorrence of any ſuch diſguiſed and traiterous Intention, which our Hearts (entirely devoted to Your Majeſty) are not capable of harbouring; and which, we believe, none but the avowed or ſecret Friends of the Pretender would, in order to facilitate their Wicked and Dark Deſigns, have endeavoured to faſten upon us.

We have ſworn, and are ſtedfaſtly purpoſed, to pay all Duty and Allegiance to Your Majeſty, our Rightful and Lawful Sovereign, whoſe Title to the Crown, by Deſcent, has been affirmed and recognized by all Your Liege People in full Parliament.

We know of no other Perſon who has any Claim to our Obedience, nor will we ever do any thing, either in or after Your Majeſty's Reign (ſhould we be ſo unfortunate as to Survive it) which may ſeem in the leaſt to favour ſuch Claims and Pretenſions.

On Your Majeſty alone our Eyes are now fixed; all our Wiſhes and Vows are employed for the Length, Peace and Proſperity of Your Reign; and whenever it ſhall pleaſe God, for our Sins, to withdraw ſo invaluable a Bleſſing, without any Alleviation of the Loſs by Iſſue from Your Majeſty, we Acknowledge the moſt Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover, as the next Heirs in the Proteſtant Line, to have the only Right of Aſcending the Throne, and indiſputable Title to our Allegiance.

We thank God, from the Bottom of our Hearts, for the Legal Proviſions, in this regard, made, to ſecure us from Popery and Arbitrary Power, which we once, thro' the Divine Aſſiſtance, vigorouſly and ſucceſsfully withſtood, when they were breaking in upon our Conſtitution; nor ſhall we fail to manifeſt an equal Zeal againſt them, whenever, and by what means ſoever, they ſhall meditate a Return.

This, we are firmly perſuaded, is the unanimous Senſe and Reſolution of the Clergy, not only of theſe Cities, but of the whole Kingdom, as we doubt not will appear to Your Majeſty, whenever they have an Opportunity of expreſſing it in Convocation.

In the mean time, we ſhall not ceaſe to bow our Knees to God, and moſt ardently to pray, that he would multiply and increaſe the Succeſſes with which Your Wiſe and Juſt Deſigns have been hitherto attended, and continue to Bleſs Your Arms and Counſels till they have effectually ſubdued the reſtleſs Enemies of our Peace both at Home and Abroad, defeated the Menaces of the Proud, and the Devices of the Crafty, and ſcattered all the People that delight in War.

Her Majeſty was pleaſed to make the following moſt Gracious Anſwer:

I Take very kindly the Aſſurances of Duty you give Me in this Addreſs, and the Regard you expreſs for the Proteſtant Succeſſion.

Kenſington, Aug. 20.

This Day, the following Addreſs from the Borough of Hindon, in the County of Wilts, was preſented to Her Majeſty by George Morley, Eſq; accompany'd by the Honourable Henry Bertie, Eſq; and Col. Morley, and introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Beaufort. Which Addreſs was receiv'd very graciouſly, and Mr. Morley and the other Gentlemen had the Honour to kiſs Her Majeſty's Hand.

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiff, Miniſter, and Burgage-Holders, of Your Majeſty's ancient Borough of Hindon, in the County of Wilts.

May it pleaſe Your moſt Excellent Majeſty!

Hindon Borough.

WE, Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Bailiff, Miniſter, and Burgage-Holders of Your ancient Borough of Hindon, have, with Admiration and Gratitude, beheld the many Bleſſings which God hath beſtowed upon this Nation, ſince Your Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Throne.

We have had the Satisfaction to ſee a Queen that hath made the Law the Rule of her Actions; that hath been ſteady in the Profeſſion and Practice of the moſt Holy Religion ſhe was bred up in; indulgent to thoſe that diſſented from it; relieving the Oppreſs'd, protecting the Weak, and pulling down thoſe that were growing too great for their Neighbours. A Glorious Series of Succeſſes is therefore the juſt Reward of ſuch extraordinary Virtue and Piety.

We cannot then but wonder at the daring Inſolence of a reſtleſs Sett of Men, who give Protection and Encouragement to thoſe heinous Crimes of Schiſm in the Church, and Reſiſtance to Princes, ſowing daily their Heretical and Antimonarchical Principles in every Corner of this Kingdom; openly renouncing Your Majeſty's Hereditary Right to the Crown, paring, by degrees, Your Title, as if, in time, they deſign'd to leave none.

Our Principles, Madam, we receive from the Goſpel, which teaches us Submiſſion to the moſt pure and uncorrupted Doctrines of our Holy Mother, the Church of England; and Obedience to Your Majeſty, the Glorious Defender of it. We beg Leave, therefore, with the greateſt Humility, to aſſure Your Majeſty, that when You ſhall think fit to call a new Parliament, we will chooſe ſuch Repreſentatives, as will ſtrenuouſly ſupport Your Majeſty's Prerogative, vigorouſly maintain Your Hereditary Right to the Throne of Your Anceſtors, and zealouſly defend the Church of England, and the Proteſtant Succeſſion, as they are by Law eſtabliſh'd.

Kenſington, Aug. 21.

The following Addreſs was, this Day, preſented to Her Majeſty, by the Reverend Dr. Ottley, Archdeacon of Salop, Dr. Robert Phillips, and Mr. Andrews, introduc'd by Mr. Harley, Chancellor of Her Majeſty's Exchequer. Which Addreſs Her Majeſty receiv'd very graciouſly; and the Gentlemen had the Honour of kiſſing Her Majeſty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Clergy of the Archdeaconries of Salop within the Dioceſs of Hereford, and of Salop within the Dioceſs of Litchfield and Coventry.

Moſt Gracious and Dread Sovereign!

Salop Clergy.

WE, Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, at a time, when Your Royal Prerogative, in ſo inſolent a manner, is attack'd; and when ſuch Republican and Rebellious Principles, as once deſtroy'd this Church and State, are not only induſtriouſly maintain'd and propagated, but carried on in ſuch a manner, that the Clergy of the Church of England are publickly diſcountenanc'd, for aſſerting her true and ſound Doctrines; and Academies of Schiſm and Faction are publickly ſet up, in Oppoſition to the Univerſities, the beſt Nurſeries of Obedience to Governours, do, in the moſt humble, dutiful, and loyal manner, beg Leave to approach Your Throne, heartily and ſincerely to aſſure Your Majeſty, that we will always vindicate Your Hereditary Right to the Crown of Your Royal Anceſtors, the Proteſtant Succeſſion, and the Church of England as by Law eſtabliſh'd, at the Expence of all that is dear to us; and will ſhew, by the Examples of our Lives and Soundneſs of our Doctrines, our Duty and firm Adherence to Your Majeſty, and the Tenets and Diſcipline of our truly Apoſtolical Church, againſt all publick Enemies Abroad, and Rebellious and Factious Deſigns at Home.

May the Almighty proſper Your glorious Endeavours, with a continu'd Series of Succeſs; and grant, as you add the brighteſt Luſtre to the Throne, which You now adorn, ſo may You, after a long Reign, be rewarded with a more glorious and immortal Crown, which ſhall be the hearty and earneſt Prayers of,

Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful, and Loyal Subjects and Servants.

Kenſington,

Kenſington, Aug. 18.

This Day the following Addreſs from the Borough of Fowey, was preſented to Her Majeſty by George Granville, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament; being ſent up by Henry Vincent, Jun. Eſq; their other Repreſentative, and Philip Raſhleigh, Eſq; their Recorder; introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Shrewsbury. Which Addreſs Her Majeſty receiv'd very graciouſly.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Portreeve, Prince's Tenants, and Free-Burgeſſes of the Ancient and Loyal Borough of Fowey, in the County of Cornwal.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

WE, Your Majeſty's moſt Loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave to aſſure You of our hearty Concurrence with the reſt of Your Dutiful People, in declaring our utter Abhorrence and Deteſtation of all Antimonarchical Principles, and Antichriſtian Doctrines, ſuch eſpecially as, of late, have been ſo confidently ſpread, and ſo ſcandalouſly defended, in Defiance of Chriſtianity and Allegiance. Fowey Borough

The Perſons truly and only dangerous to Your Majeſty, and the Proteſtant Succeſſion, are thoſe who, by denying Your Hereditary Right to the Crown, would derive Your Title from the ſole Gift of the People; thoſe who impiouſly and ſeditiouſly ſuggeſt and maintain Reſiſtance to be juſtifiable, which our Laws puniſh with Death, and our Religion with Damnation; thoſe who infamouſly turn Liberty into Licentiouſneſs, Toleration into Atheiſm, and Government into Faction; thoſe who preſume to diſpute and obſtruct Your Majeſty's Wiſdom in the Choice of Your Servants; or the Regulation of Your Miniſtry: And, laſtly, thoſe who, while they inſolently endeavour to reſtrain and ſuppreſs the Royal Authority, require an implicit Obedience to themſelves, and exerciſe an unlimited Tyranny over their Fellow-Subjects.

We, therefore, cannot but concur with the reſt of Your dutiful People, in diſavowing ſuch dangerous Principles, in declaring a due Submiſſion to Your Royal Will and Pleaſure, and a chearful Acquieſcence in Your Wiſdom, in all the Parts of Your Adminiſtration.

And, whenever it ſhall ſeem convenient to Your Majeſty to call a new Parliament, we will continue to be repreſented by ſuch Perſons as are of known Loyalty to the Crown, and well affected to the Church, and Proteſtant Succeſſion; and clear from all Suſpicion of wanting Tenderneſs for the Rights, Liberties, or Lives of their Fellow-Subjects.

The following Addreſs, from the County-Palatine of Durham, having been preſented to the Queen by the Right Honourable the Lord Dartmouth, one of Her Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State; the ſame was receiv'd very graciouſly by Her Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the High-Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Grand-Jury, Clergy, and Gentry, of the County-Palatine of Durham, met at the General Aſſizes for the ſame, the 2d Day of Auguſt, 1710.

MADAM,

OUR laſt Addreſs to Your Majeſty being only from our Quarter-Seſſions; we, Your Majeſty's moſt Loyal and Obedient Subjects, think it our Duty, once more, to renew our former Aſſurances, at this greater, and more ſolemn Time of our Aſſizes, that Your Majeſty may ſee our Reſolutions and Zeal, for ſupporting Your Sacred Perſon, Your Rightful and Lawful Title to this Imperial Crown, (as well Hereditary as otherwiſe) grow daily more vigorous and ſtrong, for the Monarchy and the Church of England. Durham County-Palatine.

Nor are we leſs concern'd for Maintaining the Proteſtant Succeſſion in the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover, againſt all Pretenders whatſoever.

And, therefore, whenever Your Majeſty ſhall, in Your great Wiſdom, judge it ſeaſonable to call a New Parliament, we unanimouſly reſolve to take ſpecial Care in chooſing ſuch Repreſentatives, whoſe very Principles will oblige them to anſwer theſe Ends and Purpoſes.

As for thoſe whoſe Conſciences are truly ſcrupulous, and cannot conform to the Communion of our Church, (ſuch is our Moderation) that we ſhall always have a tender Regard to them; and their Exemption from all Penalties, upon this Account, already granted, ſhall be inviolably obſerv'd by us.

That Your Majeſty may long live, and quietly enjoy the Glory of Your Succeſſes, againſt the Common, and all other Your Enemies Abroad, and a peaceable Reign over all Your Subjects at Home, is the hearty Prayer of,

MADAM,

Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects.

Kenſington,

Kenſington, Auguſt 21.

This day the following Addreſs was preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir Charles Barrington, Bar. Foreman of the Grand-Jury; and William Fytche, Eſq; introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Shrewsbury, Lord-Chamberlain. Which Addreſs the Queen receiv'd very graciouſly; and Sir Charles Barrington and Mr. Fytche had the Honour of kiſſing her Majeſty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the High-Sheriff, Grand-Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, Clergy, and other Gentlemen, met at the Aſſizes holden at Chelmsford, for the County of Eſſex, on Wedneſday the 2d day of Auguſt, 1710.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

Eſſex County. WE your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, beg Leave moſt humbly to approach your Royal Preſence, to aſſure your Majeſty of our juſt Deteſtation and Abhorrence of thoſe Antimonarchical, Republican, and Atheiſtical Principles, which are daily broach'd, and induſtriouſly propagated, by your Majeſty's Enemies, who endeavour to render the Imperial Hereditary Crown of theſe Realms precarious, by inſinuating, that when your Majeſty, or your Succeſſors, ſhall do what they ſhall conſtrue to be a Breach of an imaginary Contract, the Subjects are diſcharg'd from their Allegiance.

The Danger to which the beſt of Queens, and beſt of Governments are expos'd by ſuch Perſons, and ſuch Principles, lays an indiſpenſable Obligation upon us, of offering the Sacrifice of our Lives and Eſtates, in Defence of your Majeſty's Rights and Prerogative, and of our holy Church as by Law eſtabliſh'd, with Aſſurances, that we will defend and maintain the Proteſtant Succeſſion as ſettled and limited by Act of Parliament; to which we are fully convinc'd nothing can be ſo dangerous, as the aſſerting the Hereditary Right of the Crown of theſe Kingdoms to be in any other than your Majeſty.

And therefore, when it ſhall be your Royal Pleaſure to take the Advice of a new Parliament, we will do our utmoſt to be repreſented by Gentlemen, who ſhall concur in the making of Laws for ſuppreſſing ſuch dangerous Principles, and in voting Supplies ſufficient to diſcharge the Debts of the Nation, and retrieve and eſtabliſh the Publick Credit, which hath been endeavour'd to be ſunk and leſſen'd by ſome whoſe Duty and particular Promiſe it was to have ſupported it; and that for no other End, but to reſtrain your Majeſty from that Liberty which is enjoy'd by the meaneſt of your Subjects, even the Appointment of your own Servants.

May your Majeſty enjoy as great a Share and Proportion of the Bleſſings of this Life, as there is laid up in ſtore for you in the next; and may all your dutiful and loyal Subjects join with us in our hearty Wiſhes and Endeavours to render your Crown ſafe and eaſy, and to preſerve your Majeſty from the Malice and Danger of thoſe who are not Friends to any Government, longer than they are entruſted with the Adminiſtration.

Note, This Paper is deſign'd to be continu'd, and ſold by John Morphew near Stationers-Hall; Price 2 d. To whom Gentlemen are deſir'd to ſend Exact Tranſcripts of ſuch Addreſſes as ſhall come to their Hands, and they ſhall be carefully inſerted.

A Collection of Addreſſes. N° 9.

PART II.

Kenſington, Sept. 11.

The following Addreſs of the Biſhop of Exeter, the Canons, and other Dignitaries of St. Peter's, and the Clergy of the City of Exeter and Parts adjacent, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Dr. Atterbury, Arch-Deacon of Totneſs and Dean of Carliſle, introduc'd by the Right Honourable Robert Harley, Eſq; Chancellor of the Exchequer.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop of Exeter, the Canons, and other Dignitaries of St. Peter's, and the Clergy of Exeter, and Parts adjacent.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign!

THough Your Majeſty is throughly acquainted with the Principles of the Engliſh Clergy, and (as we humbly hope) entirely ſatisfied of their Loyalty, yet we cannot but think it our Duty, at this Time, to join in the general Voice and Applications of Your Subjects of all Conditions, and from all Quarters of the Land, to give Your Majeſty all poſſible Aſſurances that our Principles are the ſame they ever were, and our Affection to Your Sacred Perſon and Government unmovable. Exeter Clergy.

The late wicked Attempts of the Enemies of revealed Religion againſt the Truths of Chriſtianity, and particularly againſt the Doctrines of the Church of England, have made it neceſſary for all the faithful Sons of that Church to appear for Her with a Dutiful and Zealous Concern; and the Oppoſers of true Engliſh Loyalty have oblig'd the generous Spirits of this Nation, with an extraordinary Ardour, to renew their Vows of Fidelity to Your Majeſty. We bleſs God for this ſeaſonable Interpoſition of his Providence, in Behalf of this Church and of the Crown; for inſpiring the Friends of each of them (which are indeed always the Friends of both) with Zeal and Reſolution ſuitable to the Exigency of the preſent Time, and by this Means turning the Deſigns of our implacable Enemies, to the viſible Advantage of our Religion Country, and Conſtitution, both in Church and State.

For ourſelves, notwithſtanding all the Endeavours that have been us'd, ſecretly and openly, to introduce into the Minds of Your Majeſty's People, Irreligious, Factious, and Republican Opinions, we are determin'd, by the Divine Aſſiſtance, ſtedfaſtly to adhere to the good old Principles we have learnt, and have conſtantly taught, and to pay Your Majeſty ſuch an Obedience as our Holy Religion and the Laws of the Land require of us, as our ſtrict indiſpentable Duty; at the ſame Time eſteeming ourſelves bound by Your Majeſty's ſingular Goodneſs, and manifold Favours towards us, to acknowledge the ſame to Your Majeſty as a Debt of Gratitude.

And we do, with all humble Confidence, rely on Your Sacred Majeſty for the Continuance of Your Royal Protection to this National Church, and Your particular Encouragement to all the ſincere Members of it. And this we promiſe ourſelves, not only from Your Majeſty's Royal Word and repeated Declarations, but alſo from Your Native Goodneſs, Your Exemplary Piety, ſo acceptable to God, and admir'd by Men, Your known Regard and Eſteem for our happy Eſtabliſhment, and the many great Things You have already done for it, ſince it pleas'd the Divine Providence, by an agreeable Diſpenſation, to place the Guardianſhip of the beſt of Churches in the Hands of the beſt of Queens.

May it long remain in thoſe Hands; and may the Divine Goodneſs go on conſpicuouſly to Proſper and Bleſs Your Majeſty in the Cuſtody and Protection of it. May God preſerve You from all thoſe that would invade Your Kingdoms from Abroad, and from thoſe who would diſturb the Quiet of Your Government at Home. That neither the deteſtable Superſtition of Popery may ever again return and prevail againſt us, nor the pretended Fears of it any longer divide and diſtract us. May Your Fleets and Armies continue their victorious Progreſs, till they ſhall have reſtored to Your Subjects the ever deſirable Bleſſing of Peace. And may the ſame good Providence which has brought Your Majeſty to ſucceed by juſt Right of Inheritance in the Throne of Your Royal Anceſtors, to the great Joy of this preſent Generation, effectually provide for the like Happineſs of Poſteriry, by continuing the Proteſtant Succeſſion to the Crown, as it is now ſettled by Law, in the Heirs of Your Majeſty's Body, (a Bleſſing we are ſtill willing to hope for) and in Default of ſuch Iſſue, in the moſt Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover.

Theſe, may it pleaſe Your Majeſty, are the dutiful Sentiments of us whoſe Names are ſubſcrib'd, and, we believe, we may truly ſay, of the whole Body of the Clergy of this large Diocele; and (we doubt not) will alſo be found agreeable to the Senſe of all the Clergy of the Church of England by Law eſtabliſh'd, whenever Your Majeſty ſhall be graciouſly pleaſed to receive it in full Convocation.

Which Addreſs Her Majeſty receiv'd very graciouſly; and the Arch-Deacon had the Honour to kiſs Her Majeſty's Hand.

Kenſington, Sept. 7.

This day the following Addreſs was preſented to Her Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Lord Kilmorey; introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Beaufort: Which Addreſs Her Majeſty receiv'd very graciouſly, and my Lord Kilmorey had the Honour to kiſs Her Majeſty's Hand.

N. B. This Noble Gentleman was formerly a Non-Juror, and brought over to the Government by Dr. Sacheverell, in his Journey into Shropſhire.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the High-Sheriff, Grand-Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, Clergy, Gentlemen, and Freeholders of the County of Salop, in the Aſſizes held for that County, the 3*d day of* Auguſt, 1710.

Salop County.

WE, Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects, being deeply affected with the Reproach undeſervedly caſt upon our County, by a Repreſentation laid before Your Majeſty, in April laſt; whereby divers of Your Majeſty's Faithful Subjects were unjuſtly traduc'd with the promoting of Tumults, and diſturbing the Publick Peace:

Humbly beg Leave to acquaint Your Majeſty, that that Repreſentation was falſe and groundleſs, and was maliciouſly compos'd, and deſign'd to draw down Your Majeſty's Diſpleaſure upon us.

Since we have thus preſum'd to approach Your Sacred Majeſty, we ſhall take this Opportunity of expreſſing our utmoſt Deteſtation of that Vile and Jeſuitical Doctrine of Reſiſtance, which has of late been ſo inſolently aſſerted in the moſt publick manner; a Doctrine deſtructive to Monarchy and all Civil Government; a Doctrine which brought Your Royal Grandfather to the Block; the Guilt of which Horrid Fact ſtill lies heavy upon the Nation, and will be felt by diſtant Poſterity.

And that Your Majeſty may be aſſured the Addreſs we now humbly offer is not obtain'd in a clandeſtine and unuſual manner, but that we ſpeak the Senſe of our Country, whenſoever Your Majeſty (in Compaſſion to Your People) ſhall be pleas'd to call another Parliament, we will ſend ſuch Repreſentatives as will act with an unlimited Obedience to Your Majeſty's Authority, with Juſtice and Regard to the Liberties and Franchiſes of their Fellow-Subjects, with a due Tenderneſs to Conſciences truly ſcrupulous, with a firm Reſolution of continuing the Succeſſion in the Proteſtant Line, and of the Church of England as by Law eſtabliſh'd.

May the Almighty long continue Your Majeſty to reign over us.

May He more and more confirm and ſtrengthen Your Majeſty in the Virtues of Prudence, Juſtice, and Fortitude, (with which the Crown is already ſo richly adorn'd) and may Your Majeſty partake of all the Bleſſings to which theſe excellent Vertues lead, both in and after this Life.

Kenſington, Sept. 10. 1710.

The following Addreſs from the ancient Borough of Holt, in the County of Denbigh, was preſented to Her Majeſty by William Carter, Eſq; being introduc'd by the Right Hon. the Earl of Poulett: Which Her Majeſty receiv'd very graciouſly, and the Gentlemen, who attended the ſame, had the Honour to kiſs Her Majeſty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble and unanimous Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Holt, al. Lyons, in the County of Denbigh, at a Court held in the ſame Borough, upon the 9th day of June, Anno Dom. 1710.

MADAM,

Holt Borough.

THE gracious Acceptance Your Majeſty has been pleas'd to grant many Loyal Addreſſes which have been of late preſented, encourag'd us humbly to hope You will not reject This, which comes from Your Majeſty's very ancient Corporation of Holt, a Place eminent for its Loyalty and Sufferings, and was one of the laſt Garriſons that held out (againſt the Traiterous Rebels) for Your Royal Grandfather, of ever bleſſed and glorious Memory. And tho' the greateſt part of our Town was, in thoſe rebellious Times, reduc'd to Aſhes; nor has it at any time ſince been able to recover its former proſperous State; yet we eſteem it our Happineſs and Glory ſtill to retain That, which no ſort of Violence could ever take from us, Our Firm and Unſhaken Loyalty; which, as it utterly deteſts and abhors all thoſe Damnable Doctrines and Republican Principles, which brought that Bleſſed Martyr to the Block (and which ought not to be once named under the Beſt of Governments, and the Mildeſt of Adminiſtrations) ſo will it ever ſtudy, according to what Power is in us, upon all Occaſions, to exert itſelf in the Service and Defence of Your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, the Proteſtant Succeſſion as by Law eſtabliſh'd, and of our pure Apoſtolick Church, upon the Safety of which, that of Your Majeſty does, in a great Meaſure, depend.

May that good Providence which has hitherto ſo graciouſly preſerv'd both You and it, continue ſtill to do ſo, againſt all the open Attempts of Your profeſs'd Enemies, and the more dangerous private Deſigns of Your pretended Friends; ſuch whoſe Occaſional Conformity to the Church gives them Opportunity of wounding her more ſecurely, and whoſe diſſembled Zeal for your Majeſty's Government is employ'd only in diſputing your moſt undoubted Hereditary Title, and encouraging Reſiſtance to your Sacred Perſon.

From all ſuch Enemies, and whatever elſe might any ways diſturb or moleſt your Reign, we ſhall ever pray that the Almighty will preſerve and protect You; That the Happineſs we enjoy, under Your moſt excellent Adminiſtration, may be laſting as it is great; and, That late, very late, You may receive that Crown of Glory, which alone can reward Your exemplary Piety towards God, Your aſſiduous Care of his Church, and Your great Clemency to Your People.

Kenſington,

Kenſington, Aug. 27.

This Day the following Addreſs was preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir John Packington, Bar. introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Beaufort. Which Addreſs was receiv'd very graciouſly, and Sir John had the Honour of kiſſing Her Majeſty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Aldermen, Sheriff, Grand-Jury, Common-Council, and Capital Citizens of the ancient loyal City of Worceſter, at the Aſſizes held there the 12*th Day of* Auguſt, 1710. for the County of the ſaid City.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, do, in all Humility, with the ſincereſt Joy, congratulate your moſt Sacred Majeſty upon the many great and glorious Victories and Advantages obtain'd in this juſt and neceſſary War; which we will, to the utmoſt of our Power, enable your Majeſty to proſecute, till your Enemies ſhall ſue for Peace with Sincerity, or be no longer able to oppoſe your victorious Arms. Worceſter City.

We do alſo, in an awful Senſe of your great Goodneſs, take this Opportunity to return your Majeſty our moſt hearty Thanks for placing the Duke of Shrewsbury, a Perſon of that ancient Honour and diſtinguiſh'd Virtue, in the Lieutenancy over us; whoſe Anceſtors were ever firmly Loyal, and truly Faithful to the Crown, and himſelf no leſs Exemplary in his Conduct for the Church's Safety, at the late Tryal of it, in Oppoſition to thoſe falſe and dangerous Tenets, which make Way for Faction and Rebellion to uſurp the Place of Loyalty and Obedience.

We cannot but profeſs our unanimous Deteſtation of all ſuch Principles as would render your Royal Perſon unſafe, and your Government precarious; and of all Addreſſes that have a Tendency to Ends ſo horrid and impious: But being Sons of true Subjects to, and loyal Sufferers for your Royal Grandfather, will ſtand by and defend your undoubted Hereditary Right to the Crown of theſe Kingdoms, and inſeparably adhere to and maintain that Church for which he died a Martyr. And whenever your moſt Sacred Majeſty ſhall, in your great Wiſdom, (which is every Day more and more wonderfully Conſpicuous, in promoting the true Intereſt of your People) think fit to call a new Parliament, we will endeavour to ſend ſuch Repreſentatives, as will ſupport your juſt Title, and readily concur with your Majeſty, in preſerving the Rights of the Crown, and the Liberties of your People.

Kenſington, Aug. 29.

This Day the following Addreſs was preſented to Her Majeſty by the Right Hon. the Lord Viſcount Downe, introduc'd by Mr. Harley, Chancellor of Her Majeſty's Exchequer; which Her Majeſty receiv'd very graciouſly, and his Lordſhip had the Honour to kiſs Her Majeſty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Deputy-Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, Clergy, and Gentry, met at the Summer-Aſſizes, Anno Dom. 1710. at the City of York; together with the Rt. Hon. the Lord-Mayor, and ſeveral principal Inhabitants of the ſaid City.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, in Oppoſition to all your Enemies, beg Leave, in this publick manner, to declare before God and the World, that your Majeſty is, by Hereditary Right, as well as by Legal Eſtabliſhment, our Lawful and Rightful Queen, and only Supreme Governor, in all Cauſes, over all Perſons and Eſtates, Spiritual and Temporal; and that it is not lawful, on any Pretence whatſoever, to reſiſt your Majeſty; that we abhor all impious and ſeditious Principles, eſpecially that traiterous Poſition, of taking up Arms, by your Authority, againſt your Perſon. We do aſſure your Majeſty, we are ready to ſacrifice our Lives and Fortunes, in Defence of your Sacred Perſon, your Heirs, and Proteſtant Succeſſors, and the Government, by Law eſtabliſh'd, in Church and State, as Members of our excellently conſtituted Church. We deſire, that a Toleration may be continued to Conſciences truly Scrupulous; but it would grieve us to ſee this advanc'd into an Eſtabliſhment, ſo as to annul thoſe Laws which were deſign'd for our Defence; yet we are ſo entirely ſatisfy'd in your Majeſty's Affection to our Church, and true Zeal for Religion, that we are perſuaded our Enemies will never be able to hurt us. We look upon it as high Preſumption, in any Perſons whatſoever, to intrude into your Majeſty's Council, and to dictate the Choice of Perſons, Times, and Seaſons; the Appointment of which ought wholly to be left to your Princely Wiſdom; and how ſoon ſoever that Wiſdom ſhall think it ſeaſonable to call a new Parliament, we will uſe our utmoſt Endeavours to chooſe Repreſentatives of the ſame Loyalty to your Majeſty's Perſon, and the ſame Principles in Church and State which we do thus ſolemnly profeſs. York County and City.

London,

London, September 19.

The following Addreſs was preſented to Her Majeſty by Crew Offley, Eſq; introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Devonſhire.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the High-Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Grand-Jury, Second Inqueſt, and other Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County-Palatine of Cheſter, aſſembled at the Aſſizes at Cheſter, on the 28th Day of Auguſt, in the Ninth Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

Cheſter County-Palatine.

SInce others of our Fellow-Subjects have preſented their Profeſſions of Loyalty to your Majeſty, permit us, Dread Sovereign! to tender our unfeigned Ones, and to congratulate the wonderful Succeſs of your Arms.

We eſteem it our higheſt Felicity, that your Majeſty reigns over us, and that a Proteſtant Succeſſion is ſecured to us by Law, joyfully acknowledging your undoubted Title, without preſuming to diſtinguiſh betwixt your Parliamentary and Hereditary Right, much leſs to prefer that which your glorious Predeceſſor King William had not, the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover moſt probably will not have, and to which, in your Majeſty's own Time, there is a Popiſh Pretender.

The Peace and Order of the Kingdom require our Submiſſion to all legal Determinations, eſpecially thoſe of your higheſt Court: And we cannot, without Deteſtation, think of cenſuring a Parliamentary Proceeding, which was ſo juſt and ſo neceſſary, and which has had your Majeſty's moſt ſolemn Approbation from the Throne: The condemning of which, ſtrikes at your Majeſty's Authority, the Judicature of the Lords, the Privileges of the Commons, and the very Conſtitution of Parliaments.

We ſhall always pay a dutiful and chearful Submiſſion to your Majeſty's Government; and it is with Reſentment we behold thoſe Inſurrections and Riots which were begun in your Metropolis, and propagated thro' a conſiderable part of your Kingdom, to countenance an inſolent Offender.

Whilſt we eſteem the late Revolution happy, and conſider the Part your Majeſty had in it, what Prevarication and Undutifulneſs ſhould we be guilty of, ſhould we inſinuate, that the Means of the Revolution were unjuſt, or repreſent the Principles of it as Antimonarchical.

But ſuch Methods as theſe have been made uſe of to inflame and divide us, and have prevented that Bleſſing of Peace, which otherwiſe, by this time, we might have enjoy'd; and therefore, we hope the Promoters of theſe Diſtractions will no longer grudge the Payment of Taxes, for carrying on that War which they have prolong'd. We have juſt cauſe to adore the divine Providence and Goodneſs, that notwithſtanding the Attempts of our crafty Enemies at home, our proud Enemies abroad have been humbled, by the continuance of thoſe never-failing Succeſſes which attend upon your conſummate General in Flanders; and thoſe great and ſeaſonable ones, which the Zeal and Fidelity of your General in Spain, and his Love to publick Liberty, have been rewarded with.

Theſe are Bleſſings which call for our higheſt Acknowledgments to Almighty God, the Author of them, and Duty to your Majeſty, who has procured them for us; and we moſt ſincerely congratulate your Majeſty upon them, and pray they may terminate in the Eſtabliſhment of your Throne, by a ſafe and honourable Peace.

May Old Engliſh Liberty prevail, and never be exchang'd for Licentiouſneſs.

May the Church of England continue to be Proſperous, but never Dictate to, or be Independent on the State.

May the Difference between that and other Proteſtant Churches, never be widen'd.

But as that Church was firſt reformed by the Authority of the Civil Power; and as it has had the Honour, ever ſince, to be the Bulwark of the Proteſtant Intereſt, ſo it may always continue upon the ſame Foot.

And may your Majeſty's Reign be long, as it has been glorious, over a Happy and free People.

Note, This Paper is deſign'd to be continu'd, and ſold by John Morphew near Stationers-Hall; Price 2 d. To whom Gentlemen are deſir'd to ſend Exact Tranſcripts of ſuch Addreſſes as ſhall come to their Hands, and they ſhall be carefully inſerted.

A Collection of Addreſſes. N° 10.

PART II.

London, Nov. 24.

This Day the following Addreſs from the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Glouceſter, was preſented to Her Majeſty by the Honourable Mr. Henry Brydges, one of their Repreſentatives in Convocation, introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Beaufort.

To the QUEEN.

The humble Addreſs of the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Glouceſter.

May it pleaſe Your Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

TO permit us, the Clergy of the Dioceſe of Glouceſter, humbly to caſt ourſelves at Your Royal Feet, with the deepeſt Senſe of our Duty and Obligations to Your Majeſty, for Your tender Concern for the Support and Welfare of that excellent Church, the Church of England, as by Law eſtabliſh'd. Glouceſter Clergy.

For, if we conſider the daring Attempts of Atheiſts, Socinians, and Deiſts, who endeavour to make Shipwreck of our moſt holy Faith and Doctrines; of Papiſts, Hereticks, and Schiſmaticks, who unite in the ſame Intereſt, and endeavour to confound the Order of our holy Worſhip; if we conſider the Antimonarchical, Seditious, and Rebellious Principles that are, with ſo much Induſtry, propagated and ſpread in Your Land; our Sacred Orders vilify'd and contemn'd; and that damnable Doctrine of Reſiſtance, under the mildeſt and beſt of Reigns, defended; and, in effect, another Goſpel preach'd by Men of turbulent Spirits, and ignorant of that meek and peaceable Doctrine of the Prince of Peace, to make way for the Diſturbance of Church and State; Tenets peculiar to Papiſts and Fanaticks; and a Deluge of Immorality conſequent thereupon: When we conſider this, and much more of the like Nature and Tendency, we may gladly ſay, Who knows but that Your Majeſty is come to the Kingdom for ſuch a Time as this?

It is with unſpeakable Satisfaction we reflect upon the Happineſs our Church enjoys under Your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Reign; aſſuring You of our inceſſant Prayers for Your Majeſty's long Life, Health, Peace, and Proſperity; and in ſo doing, we will, under God, ſtill hope for Your Royal Favour and Protection, in the Exerciſe and Enjoyment of all our Church-Rights and Immunities.

And may all Orders and Degrees amongſt us be willingly obedient, not only for Wrath, but Conſcience-ſake; and may Your Clergy (eſpecially) conſtantly preach the Truth, boldly rebuke Vice, and, if call'd to it, patiently ſuffer for the Truth's ſake. And then may ſuch a Happy People, under ſuch a Happy Queen, be ever ready, with all Thankfulneſs, to acknowledge the Divine Favour to us: And when You ſhall late enjoy in Heaven an Eternal Crown, we farther pray, That this which You, by an undoubted Hereditary Right, ſo juſtly enjoy, and now ſo glorioufly adorn, may deſcend to, and continue in the Proteſtant Succeſſion, to the Defence of this Primitive Church, and that our Sion may yet become a Praiſe in the Earth.

Which Addreſs Her Majeſty receiv'd very graciouſly; and Mr. Brydges had the Honour to kiſs Her Majeſty's Hand.

Hampton-Court, Oct. 30.

The following Addreſs was preſented to Her Majeſty, by the Reverend Mr. Veſy, Chaplain to the Right Honourable the Earl of Abingdon; introduc'd by the Right Honourable the Lord-Keeper.

To the QUEEN's moſt excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Clergy of the Dioceſe of Oxford.

Oxford Clergy.

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Clergy of the Dioceſe of Oxford, knowing it to be always the indiſpenſable Duty of our Function, to cry aloud, and ſpare not, think our Silence, at this time, would be inexcuſable, both to God and Your Majeſty, his Vice-gerent, when Blaſphemous and Atheiſtical, Seditious and Republican Principles are ſo openly taught, and ſo directly tend to the utter Subverſion of Religion, and Deſtruction of Monarchy.

And we beg leave to aſſure Your Majeſty, that we ſhall on all Occaſions give the higheſt Inſtances of our unalterable Affection to Your Sacred Perſon and Government: That we conſcientiouſly obſerve thoſe Oaths we have willingly taken; That our Prayers for Your long and happy Reign over us, proceed from our Hearts as well as Lips; That we preach up an abſolute Submiſſion to the Supreme Authority, without Fanatical Diſtinctions, or Jeſuitical Reſervations; which not being warranted by the Word of God, we verily believe, that thoſe who teach Men ſo, how great ſoever they may be in this World, ſhall be call'd the leaſt in the Kingdom of Heaven.

That Your Majeſty may long live and reign over us, to ſee the Church enjoy the Advantages of Your Royal Bounty and Piety; That Your Princely Wiſdom may be no leſs ſucceſsful in Suppreſſing Schiſm and Faction, Blaſphemy and Atheiſm at home, than Your Arms have been in Subduing Your Enemies abroad; and that You may late reſign the undoubted Prerogatives of the Crown, the pure Doctrines of the Church, and the juſt Liberties of the Subject ſecure, to the Illuſtrious Houſe of HANOVER, are the daily Prayers of Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

Her Majeſty was pleaſed graciouſly to receive this Addreſs, and the Clergy had the Honour of Kiſſing Her Majeſty's Hand.

St. James's, Nov. 26.

This day the following Addreſs was preſented to Her Majeſty by George Granville and John Trevanion, Eſqrs; Knights of the Shire for the County of Cornwall, attended by a great Number of the principal Gentlemen of that County.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the High-Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Cornwall, at Leſtwithiell, the Second Day of Nov. 1710.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

Cornwall County.

WE the High-Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of Your loyal County of Cornwall, being aſſembled together, with Hearts entirely united for the Support of Your Majeſty's Government, humbly beg Leave to aſſure Your Majeſty, That we have endeavour'd with the utmoſt Zeal to anſwer Your Gracious Intentions in Diſſolving Your laſt Parliament, by chuſing ſuch Repreſentatives as we are well aſſur'd will earneſtly contend, with the reſt of Your dutiful Subjects, in the Defence of the Monarchy, the Church of England, and the Proteſtant Succeſſion as by Law eſtabliſhed.

We farther aſſure Your Majeſty, that we will have the greateſt Regard to the Honour and Welfare of the Nation, by contributing, with all Chearfulneſs, to the Proſecution of the War, and to the Maintenance of the Publick Credit.

We likewiſe preſume upon this Occaſion to expreſs our great Satisfaction in being under the immediate Care and Protection of the Earl of Rocheſter, during the Minority of the Earl of Bath, whoſe Name and Family muſt be always dear to this Your ever loyal County.

May Your Majeſty long live to be the Support and Ornament of that Church, which is the Beauty and Strength of the Reformation, as well as the Envy of its Adverſaries; and Your Majeſty's Arms be more and more victorious, and may the prudent Counſels of Your Miniſters be ever as ſucceſsful as Your Choice of them has been pleaſing to all Your Faithful Subjects.

Hampton-

Hampton-Court, Oct. 21.

The humble Addreſs of the Chancellor, Archdeacon, and Clergy of the County of Hampſhire, preſented to Her Majeſty by Peter Mews, Eſq; Chancellor of the Dioceſe of Wincheſter, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Shrewsbury.

Wincheſter Clergy.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

THoſe dutiful Congratulations, which we do with great Pleaſure obſerve to flow from all Parts of your Kingdom, are more juſtly due from your Clergy; who being cheriſh'd by your Bounty, and diſtinguiſh'd by your Favour, are particularly intereſted in your Happineſs.

The wonderful Courſe of Succeſſes, wherewith God has bleſſed your Arms; and the good Hopes we have, that your Throne will be ſoon eſtabliſhed in Peace, are not more proper Occaſions for our Joy, than that wonderful Prevalence of Truth, over the Minds of your People; and that vigorous Zeal, wherewith they contend for thoſe Apoſtolical Doctrines, which are the ſure Support of your Crown.

This happy Diſpoſition in your Subjects, is chiefly owing (under God) to your Majeſty's Exemplary Piety and Goodneſs; and to your Royal Favour and Countenance, we aſcribe the Advantage we have of improving their good Inclinations in being permitted to ſpeak the Truth with Boldneſs.

As we have the deepeſt, and moſt grateful Senſe of the manifold Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's Government, ſo no Imputation is more injurious to us, aad which we more abhor, than that of Diſaffection to your Majeſty, and the Proteſtant Succeſſion. And tho' we are fully perſuaded that theſe Reproaches find no Credit with your Majeſty; yet, to remove all unjuſt Surmizes, we humbly crave leave to repeat, at this time, the Aſſurances already given, of our moſt ſincere Duty and Obedience to Your Majeſty; and, moreover, openly to recognize your Majeſty's Juſt and Hereditary Title to the Crown of theſe Realms, deriv'd to you from your Royal Progenitors, and devolving, in Failure of Iſſue from Your Majeſty, upon the moſt Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover.

In thus avowing your Majeſty's Hereditary Right, we entirely diſclaim all Deſign of Favouring the Pretences of ſuch as are excluded by our Laws, and whoſe Titles we have abjur'd.

Theſe Profeſſions will come (we doubt not) with a better Grace from the whole Body of your Clergy, when they ſhall have the deſirable Opportunity of being aſſembled in Convocation: But as none can be more ſincerely made, ſo we humbly hope your Majeſty will forgive the Forwardneſs of our Zeal, and the Overflowing of our Duty, when under the deep Senſe of your ſurpaſſing Goodneſs (as in many other Inſtances, ſo particularly in that of placing a * Perſon of inbred Loyalty and undiſſembled Affection to our Church at the Head of our County) it would be uneaſy to us to keep Silence.

* The Duke of Beaufort.

It is our ſincere, and conſtant Prayer, that your Reign may be Long and Proſperous; and that, if God ſhall take you from us without Iſſue, there may riſe a Prince out of the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover, like unto you, who may Comfort this Nation, under that, which muſt otherwiſe be thought an inſupportable Calamity.

On Monday, Oct. 23. the following Addreſs was preſented to Her Majeſty, at Hampton-Court, by the Right Honourable Sir Samuel Garrard, Bar. Lord Mayor, at the Head of the New Lieutenancy; which Her Majeſty receiv'd very graciouſly, and the Gentlemen had the Honour of kiſſing Her Hand; and were afterwards entertain'd, at the Queen's Charge, with a moſt Noble Entertainment.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Lord-Mayor, and the reſt of Your Majeſty's Commiſſioners of Lieutenancy, for the City of London.

London Lieutenancy.

Dread Sovereign!

NO ſooner did we find ourſelves honour'd by your Royal Commiſſion, but we unanimouſly reſolv'd to crave Leave humbly to proſtrate ourſelves before you, to aſſure you, That our Fidelity to your Majeſty ſhall ever remain moſt Firm and Inviolable.

We ſhould be utterly unworthy of that Truſt which you have been pleas'd to repoſe in us, were we not fully determin'd to employ thoſe Arms which your Majeſty has put into our Hands, for the Defence of your Royal Perſon and Prerogative.

We own your Right to be Divine, your Perſon Sacred, and your Throne to be Hereditary, and will always be prepar'd to hazard All that is dear to us, in Defence of your Crown, againſt the Inſolence of any Faction at Home, and the deſpicable Menaces of a Pretender Abroad.

The Primitive and Apoſtolical Doctrines and Precepts of our Pure and Undefiled Mother, the Church of England, we will Obſerve, Support, and Defend, in Oppoſition to Popery on the one Hand, and Fanaticiſm on the other, however, with a tender Regard to thoſe truly Conſcientious, who quietly enjoy their Liberty, without diſturbing Her Peace. And we are firmly reſolv'd to maintain, to the utmoſt of our Power, the Proteſtant Succeſſion in the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover.

And as we cannot omit to congratulate your Majeſty on the great and uninterrupted Succeſſes, with which it hath pleas'd the Divine Goodneſs to bleſs your Majeſty's Arms, and thoſe of your Allies, Abroad; ſo we do, with equal Joy and Gratitude, reflect on the Wiſdom of your Councils at Home, ſo greatly tending to the Eaſe, Satisfaction, and Welfare of your People, and the Preſervation and Maintenance of our moſt Excellent and Happy Conſtitution.

May the Almighty, as a Reward of your Majeſty's Piety, yet vouchſafe ſuch farther Succeſſes, as may procure the Bleſſings of a laſting Peace: And may your Majeſty long live and reign in the Hearts of all your People.

Her Majeſty's Moſt Gracious Anſwer.

I Thank you heartily for this Dutiful Addreſs; and take this Occaſion to recommend to You that Part of Your Duty, the Preſerving the Peace of the City.

I alſo deſire you, as you have great Fortunes of your own, that you will uſe your Endeavours to ſupport the Publick Credit.

London,

London, Nov. 18.

The following Addreſs was preſented to Her Majeſty, at Hampton-Court, on Thurſday the 16th of November, by the Reverend Mr. Goode, Rector of Welden, in the County of Northampton; introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Shrewsbury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majeſty's Houſhold.

The humble Addreſs of the Clergy of the Dioceſe of Peterborough.

Dread Sovereign!

Peterborough Clergy.

AS we have, with extreme Satisfaction, obſerv'd the ſeaſonable Zeal and Earneſtneſs of all Your Majeſty's truly Loyal and Affectionate Subjects, in expreſſing on the One hand their great Concern for Your Royal Perſon, Government, and the Proteſtant Succeſſion; and on the Other, their utter Hatred and Deteſtation of thoſe pernicious and damnable Doctrines of Faction, Sedition, and Rebellion, which have been ſo lately avow'd and maintain'd in ſuch an open and daring manner:

So, that Your Majeſty may be equally ſenſible of our hearty Concurrence with the reſt of our Fellow-Subjects in their Sentiments of Duty and Obedience, We, the Clergy of the Dioceſe of Peterborough, do beg Leave, tho' late, humbly to approach Your Royal Preſence with our ſolemn Aſſurances not only of a firm and ſteady Adherence to Your Majeſty, but to the Proteſtant Succeſſion, as it is eſtabliſh'd by Law in the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover, in Oppoſition to all Papiſts, Non-Jurors, and Republicans.

And were we not oblig'd to both, by the ſtrongeſt Ties and Obligations imaginable, even thoſe of our moſt ſolemn Words and Oaths, yet no one, ſurely, of an impartial and unprejudic'd Judgment, can ever imagine, that we who teach, believe, and know all the Doctrines of the Church of England to be truly Primitive and Apoſtolical; that we, who have, ſeveral of us, in Defence of thoſe very Doctrines, to the utmoſt Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, oppos'd that Torrent of Popiſh Tyranny and Superſtition, that was breaking in upon us in a late Reign, ſhould endeavour to introduce it in the preſent, or any other that ſhall ſucceed.

We might be juſtly branded with the infamous Character of the higheſt Ingratitude, and be accounted the moſt inſenſible Men living, both of our own Intereſt, and the many Bleſſings we enjoy under Your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign, ſhou'd we, for the Sake of one whom we have abjur'd, and under whom we muſt expect nothing but Popery and Slavery, deſert our juſt and lawful Sovereign, the moſt pious, beſt, and mildeſt of Queens that ever wielded the Engliſh Scepter; a Queen whoſe Title to the Crown is unqueſtionably Hereditary; a Queen who has been bountiful to our Holy Church, in a more extraordinary Manner than any of Her Royal Anceſtors; a Queen ſo excellently good and gracious, that it is as impoſſible for us to ſpeak of her without Commendation, as it is for our Commendations to equal Her Virtues.

We therefore humbly intreat Your moſt Sacred Majeſty, ſincerely to believe, that we will religiouſly and inviolably obſerve our Oaths of Allegiance to Your Majeſty, and of Abjuration againſt the Pretender: That we ſhall conſtantly endeavour to inſtil the good old Principles of Subjection and Obedience into thoſe of Your Subjects, that are committed to our Care; Principles which ſome Men of a Factious and Rebellious Spirit, of late, have us'd all their Art and Induſtry, to condemn, and entirely explode, and for no other Reaſon, as we verily think, but for the utter Subverſion of our excellent Conſtitution, both in Church and State.

May the Great and Almighty God, by whom Your Majeſty and all other Princes reign, and to whom only You are accountable, crown Your great and ſignal Victories, with a ſpeedy, laſting, and honourable Peace: May he long, very long, preſerve Your Majeſty in Life and Health, and make the Years of Your Reign over us, far exceed both in Number and Happineſs any of Your Royal Predeceſſors, and when he ſhall be pleaſed to remove You from Governing one of the moſt glorious Kingdoms upon Earth; May he tranſlate You to a Place of the greateſt Bliſs and Happineſs in the Kingdom of Heaven.

This, Madam, is, and always ſhall be, the fervent and daily Prayer of

Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects.

Which Addreſs Her Majeſty receiv'd very Graciouſly, thank'd Mr. Goode for bringing of it, gave him Her Hand to kiſs, and commanded him to thank his Brethren when he came into the Country.

Note, This Paper is deſign'd to be continu'd, and ſold by John Morphew near Stationers-Hall; Price 2 d. To whom Gentlemen are deſir'd to ſend Exact Tranſcripts of ſuch Addreſſes as ſhall come to their Hands, and they ſhall be carefully inſerted.

A Collection of Addreſſes. N° 11.

PART II.

To ANNE, Queen of Great Britain.

The Humble and Thankful Addreſs of the Queen's Proteſtant Subjects, the People called Quakers, in and about the City of London, on behalf of themſelves, and the reſt of their Perſuaſion.

WHEN we conſider the Queen's Royal Regard to protect our Religious Liberty, and Her freſh Aſſurance, from the Throne, of Her Chriſtian Reſolution, to maintain the Indulgence by Law allowed to Scrupulous Conſciences, and Her tender Care that the ſame may be tranſmitted to Poſterity in the Proteſtant Succeſſion in the Houſe of Hanover; we find ourſelves concerned gratefully to acknowledge Her Goodneſs therein, and the ready Concurrence of Her Great Council therewith; taking this occaſion to aſſure the Queen, of our Duty and Affection, and Peaceable Behaviour under Her Government, as is our Principle, and hath always been our Practice. And, we heartily deſire, our Fellow-Subjects may lay aſide all Animoſities, and, in a Spirit of Love and Meekneſs, endeavour to out-do each other in Vertue and univerſal Charity. May it graciouſly pleaſe Almighty God to defend and bleſs Thee, O Queen! and guide Thee, by his Grace, in a long and proſperous Reign here, and afterwards, to receive Thee to Glory, is the hearty Prayer of Thy faithful Subjects.

Sign'd in behalf, and by Appointment of a Meeting of the ſaid People in London, the 19th Day of the 10th Month, 1710.

Her MAJESTY's Anſwer.

I Thank you for your Addreſs; and you may always depend on my Protection.
